Grocer Faces Murder Jury At Mansfield

Sternbaum on Trial For Wife's Slaying And Charge of Arson

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Ernest Max Sternbaum, 34-year-old supermarket executive, goes on trial in Common Pleas Court here today on a first degree murder charge. He is accused of slaying his pretty wife, Leah, 31, Dec. 4, 1952.

Sternbaum also has been indicted on an arson charge in connection with a fire which gutted the Sternbaum Food Market office here on the same date.

Body Found in Office

Mrs. Sternbaum was found in the burned office. Dr. Frank P. Cleveland, Cincinnati pathologist, said in a special autopsy report that traces of carbon monoxide were found in her lungs, indicating she inhaled smoke after being beaten.

Coroner D. C. Lavender and Dr. Cleveland agreed she sustained fractures of the skull and injuries to the brain which resulted from at least five blows on the head.

Sternbaum claimed two men whom he could not identify had entered the office, beat him and his wife, and set fire to the place. He said he managed to crawl into an alley where firemen found him. He claimed the men took his wirstwatch and a wallet containing $60.

Arson Trial to Follow

The grand jury indicted Sternbaum on the murder and arson charges Dec. 5. The trial on the arson charge is scheduled to follow the murder trial.

Sternbaum is treasurer of the Sternbaum Market chain which includes stores in other Ohio cities. Defense attorney in the murder trial is Paul Herbert, former Ohio lieutenant governor.

Big Four Hold Secret Western Zone Parley

POLICE ENGAGE LAUNDRY OWNER IN GUN BATTLE. Crouching behind autos and squad cars, armed police wait for a laundry owner to give himself up after he wounded a policeman and a truck driver in a gun battle inside the shop in Chicago. Police entered the shop on the northwest side to arrest the Chinese owner on an assault charge brought by Stephen Malenk, 40, truck driver who accompanied police to point out the owner. Malenk was struck twice and Policeman Roman Steinke, 42, was shot five times. The laundry man was removed with a critical wound in his head.

China Status, Disarmament Major Issues

Big 3 Ministers Draft Three-Point Program To Present to Molotov

BERLIN (AP)—The Big Four foreign ministers moved back to Berlin's Western sector today, trying in secret session to solve some of the world problems they couldn't settle in open debate.

Their first secret meeting this afternoon was called for discussion of Russia's demand for a world disarmament conference and for a Big Five conference on world problems that would give Communist China official status as a major world power.

Austrian Issue Up

The ministers also were due to discuss how and when to take up the question of an independence treaty for Austria.

The three Western ministers were reported determined to confront Molotov with a three-point program:

1. They will meet with Red China only for discussion of such Asian issues as Korea and Indochina, and only if the Peiping regime demonstrates good faith by cooperating first in a Korean settlement or else stops arming the Communist-led Vietminh rebels in Indochina.

2. The Big Four must fix a deadline for their fruitless discussions on Germany, unless Russia is ready to modify her demands.

3. All international attempts to bring about world disarmament must be within the United Nations. Molotov had proposed such a conference be held outside the international organization, so Red China could attend.

Evidence of Unrest Seen

The conference moved out of East Berlin, where it met last week at the Soviet Embassy, in the wake of evidence that the 18 million East Germans again are stirring to a low boil against the Red occupation.

Western agencies with thorough information networks in the East said 30 to 500 Germans had been jailed in the past week for speaking out openly against Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's proposal to unite Germany on the hammer and sickle pattern.

East German secret police were on a full alert, but the 300,000-man Soviet occupation army was reported going about winter activity as usual.

The discontent hadn't a chance of upsetting the Russian occupa-

Knowland Says Ike's Program Gains Backing

Optimism on Prospects For Enactment Voiced By GOP Floor Leader

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP Senate leader, said today the prospects for enactment of a substantial portion of President Eisenhower's legislative program are looking better all the time.

"I think that when Congress has completed its work, we will have a program that will meet the approval of the country," Knowland said in an interview.

Voices Optimism

Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall, on an NBC television program yesterday, expressed similar optimism about the prospects not only for the legislative program but for the Republicans' chances of picking up more congressional seats in the November elections.

He said Eisenhower's leadership has given the party a tremendous lift and he expects a gain of 15 to 25 seats, after a campaign based on the President's "record of achievement."

As an example of legislative seaway bill, approved by the Senate and a House committee. He said Eisenhower is succeeding in

Police Conduct Gambling Raid; Eight Arrested

Eight men arrested in a gambling raid by Marion police Saturday night were fined a total of $275 and costs when they pleaded guilty in Municipal Court this morning.

Police Chief Thomas Coon said today the raid on the Coffee Bar at 484 W. Center St. was made at 9:20 p.m. Saturday. He indicated police had received complaints of gambling activities at the restaurant.

Charged with being the keeper of a gambling place was Jack Shingler, 32, of 482 Windsor St., operator of the restaurant.

He pleaded guilty and was fined $100 and costs.

Others arrested on charges of gambling were: Harry E. Blum, 52, Marion Hotel; Francis E. Ganson, 47, 702 Herman St.; Ralph Miller, 56, of 351 York St.; Toni Bartis, 61, of 464 W. Center St.; Harrison B. Jones, of 294 Cass Ave.; Erine Landon, 33, of Prospect; and Roy Eaches, 29, of 389 Milburn Ave. They were each fined $25 and costs.

Chief Coon said the raid was made by second trick patrolmen, plainclothes officers, and himself. He said when police walked into a room at the rear of the restaurant they found the seven men playing cards with money on the table.

City's Second Fatality

Local Woman Dies Of Traffic Injuries

A Marion woman pedestrian was fatally injured and a companion was hurt in one of six traffic accidents on city streets over the weekend.

Fatally injured when struck by a car at Davids St. and Woodrow Ave. at 7:55 p.m. Saturday was Mrs. Goldie Baker, 46, of 416½ Silver St. She died at 5:10 a.m. this morning. Police reported she suffered a possible fractured skull, concussion, possible fractured right shoulder and cuts and abrasions of both legs.

Fifth To Die in County

She was the second traffic fatality in the city and the fifth in the county this year.

Injured in the accident was Martin Rice, 46, of Silver St. He was treated at City Hospital for cuts and abrasions of both elbows and his left leg below the knee. He was released later.

The accident occurred as Mrs. Baker and Rice were walking east across Davids St. at Woodrow Ave. and a car driven by James Thompson, 21, of 443 Lee St. was traveling north on Davids after making a left turn off Bellefontaine Ave.

Didn't See Pedestrians

Thompson told investigating police that as he turned onto Davids St. he was blinded by the headlights of three cars traveling south on Davids St. which he said were lined up side by side across the street.

Because of this, he did not see the two pedestrians crossing the street in time to avoid hitting them, he said.

Police said they found skid marks on the pavement where Thompson applied the brakes. The two pedestrians apparently were thrown some 25 feet when hit by the car, police said.

Rice told police that he and Mrs. Baker were crossing the street with the traffic light at

Police are continuing their investigation of the accident to determine probable cause and whether or not to file any charges.

Accident Kills Sycamore Man

Automobile Strikes Rear of Moving Truck

Paul E. Quaintance, 49, of near Sycamore was killed instantly today in a truck-auto accident, the Bucyrus post of the state highway patrol reported.

The accident occurred at 1:30 a.m. on Route 30-N, one and six-tenths miles west of Bucyrus. The Quaintance car struck the rear end of a moving truck and trailer outfit driven by James R. Lauer, 27, of Akron.

Quaintance, pinned in his car, died from a skull fracture and a broken neck. The truck was moderately damaged.

His body was taken to the Munz Funeral Home in Bucyrus. Crawford County Coroner, Dr. E. P. Mansfield, ordered an autopsy at University Hospital in Columbus. Following the autopsy, the body will be taken to the Moore Funeral Home in Sycamore.

Quaintance is survived by his mother, Mrs. Hallie Quaintance, with whom he lived, and a sister, Mrs. Arlyth Dennis of Tiffin.

Funeral services will be held in the Moore Funeral Home Wednesday at 2 p.m., with burial in the Benton Cemetery, Sycamore.

OSU Okay Given On Atomic Reactor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State University acted today to expand campus research into the field of atomic power and its application to industry.

Trustees unanimously approved a recommendation by President Howard L. Bevis that opened the way to obtain an atomic reactor under a program offered universities by the Atomic Energy Commission.

Officials of County Plan Voting Machine Parley

County commissioners have requested a meeting with members of the board of elections for 8 p.m. tonight for the purpose of discussing voting machines for Marion County.

The board of elections in January submitted a resolution requesting commissioners to obtain 77 voting machines at an estimated cost of $111,650. Elections officials claim the machines would save the county $200,379 over a 20-year period.

Pope Continues To Rally, Says Private Doctor

Pontiff Spends Restful Night but Misgivings of Faithful Undispelled

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius' private physician said today the Pontiff rested well last night and his "improvement continues."

It was the third straight day that Dr. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi had cited at least some improvement in the condition of the ailing head of the Roman Catholic Church.

But the brief words and the previous hopeful reports did not quell the fears that have arisen for the health of the frail Pontiff, now 77.

DR. GALEAZZI-LISI
Pontiff's Bedside Attendant

For the past 15 days the Pope has been secluded in his Vatican Palace apartment, confined to his bed with a stomach ailment of undisclosed nature which has greatly enfeebled him. He is able to retain only a little liquid food.

Prayers for the Pontiff's health were repeated in Roman Catholic churches throughout the world. Thousands of letters and messages poured into the Vatican from far points expressing hope for his recovery.

Galeazzi-Lisi's report this morning was terse: "The Pope rested well and his improvement continues."

After issuing it, the doctor left the Vatican to go shopping in downtown Rome — an indication that perhaps slightly less concern was felt for his patient's condition today.

The Pope is also being treated by a Swiss glandular and internal specialist, Dr. Paul Niehans. For the past several days, one or the other has been in attendance at all times at the Pope's simple apartment.

Yesterday's communique was the most heartening since the Pontiff was stricken. It said: "The Pope last (Saturday) night slept rather well. Signs of improvement are noted in the condition of the stomach, which is quieter and less disturbed. However, in his general condition there continues to be considerable weakness."

2 Alaska Bush Pilots Credited With Saving 6

CURRY, Alaska (AP)—Two veteran Alaska bush pilots were credited today with saving the lives of six men tumbled into the snow-covered mountain wilderness near here Friday when the plane in which they were riding exploded.

Two of the other 16 men aboard the Air Force C47 when it left Elmendorf Air Force Base near Anchorage on the ill-fated flight were known dead.

Eight were missing and bush pilot Cliff Hudson who with Don Sheldon was credited with effecting the rescue of the six survivors, said there was little chance any of the others were alive.

The Air Force withheld names of the dead and missing pending notification of next of kin.

The Air Force said Hudson and Sheldon saved the lives of the six who spent two nights and most of two days in subfreezing temperature awaiting rescue after the wrecked two-engined transport was sighted.

Hudson spotted the wreckage late Friday. The following day Sheldon located the first three survivors huddled in the snow 15 miles from the wreckage where they had floated down in their 'chutes.

Sheldon, Hudson and an Air Force doctor flew to the spot in a blinding snowstorm Saturday. They were grounded overnight when the weather worsened.

Hudson struck off then on the arduous trek through 3½-foot snow to reach the crash scene. Sheldon, meanwhile, flew his trio of survivors yesterday to Anchorage, 75 miles southwest of here. The others were picked up by helicopter.

9 Individuals, 6 Firms Indicted In Fraud Cases

Former Congressman Among Defendants In Surplus Ship Deal

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department today announced the indictment of nine individuals and six corporations on charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in multi-million dollar deals in surplus ships after World War II.

Among those indicted was Joseph E. Casey, former Democratic member of the House from Massachusetts.

Casey allegedly headed a group a Senate committee charged made fantastic profits in post war tanker deals.

Another of those indicted was Aristoteles S. Onassis, world power in the shipping trade.

The indictment was returned by a District of Columbia federal grand jury Oct. 13, but was kept sealed by court order pending the surrender of Onassis.

Onassis, native of Greece and now a citizen of Argentina, presented himself in the Federal District Court here today and, after the indictment was opened, entered a plea of innocent.

Chief Judge Bolitha Laws authorized his release on $10,000 bond, but stipulated he could not leave the country while the charges are pending against him.

The wealthy Onassis arrived in the United States last week. He has shipbuilding and ship operations scattered throughout the world.

In addition to Casey and Onassis, the indictment named Joseph H. Rosenbaum and Robert W. Dudley, Washington, D. C., lawyers; Robert L. Berenson, now living in Paris; Nicholas Cokkinis, Charles Augnethaler and Harold O. Becker, all of New York City; and George Cokkinis, reported to be abroad.

The companies charged in the indictment are: United States Petroleum Carriers Inc.; Victory Carriers Inc.; Central American Steam Ship Agency Inc.; Sociedad Indus-

Clamor Brings Action

Senate Studies Controls On Speculation in Coffee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators moved on two fronts today in response to clamor over recent sharp increases in coffee prices.

Five leaders of the coffee trade in New York City were asked to testify before a Senate Banking subcommittee headed by Sen. Beall (R-Md). It is seeking to learn whether speculation played a part in price jumps to more than $1 a pound.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt) asked quick passage of a bill that would impose government supervision of trading and speculation in coffee.

Aiken, chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, said in an interview the bill likely would go through on a calendar call, a procedure by which the Senate passes bills without debate unless there is objection.

The legislation would require the Commodity Exchange Authority, an Agriculture Department agency, to monitor trading in coffee futures contracts.

Spokesmen for coffee producers in Latin-American nations have said a poor crop and the operation of supply and demand caused the price jumps. They have called for action to counter any consumer boycotts of coffee.

Beall said his special coffee probe aims at fostering friendly relations with coffee-producing nations.

"Development of the facts should do much to remove any misunderstandings," he said.

100 Mile-Per-Hour Chase

Police of 3 Cities, Patrol Join To Arrest Speeder

Marion, Delaware, and Bucyrus police and a state highway patrolman were all led on a 100-mile-an-hour chase by an 18-year-old Magnetic Springs youth Saturday night.

As told by Marion police, the chase began in Delaware when police there noticed a car speeding through the city. They gave chase but were unable to catch the fast-moving car and radioed ahead to Marion police for assistance.

MARION POLICE set up roadblocks with two police cruisers on Delaware Ave. No sooner had they stationed themselves than a car driven by Clifton Eugene Kinnear, 18, of Magnetic Springs raced by followed by a state highway patrol car driven by Cpl. Roof of the Delaware post.

Marion patrolmen Lowell Titus and Homer Watson in their cruiser reported Kinnear sped through downtown Marion at speeds of between 80 and 90 miles an hour.

FOLLOWING HIM north on State Route 4 they overtook him about two and one-half miles north of the city. After they passed him, Kinnear again spurted around them and cut back in front, striking the left front fender of the cruiser.

Now fearing they were chasing a desperado the patrolmen fired two

$9,500 Blaze Routs Family At Caledonia

A $9,500 blaze near Caledonia early Sunday morning forced a family of 10 from their farm home.

Fire broke out at the Charles Shepherd farm home, three and a half miles east of Caledonia on U.S. Route 30-S, about 5 a.m. Sunday, Robert Allen, chief of the Caledonia volunteer fire department said. Cause of the blaze was undetermined, but Allen said apparently an electric failure or an overheated furnace pipe started the fire in a wall partition on the first floor.

The Caledonia fire fighters worked about four hours before the blaze was completely extinguished. Estimate of damage to the house alone was set at $7,000 while loss of furniture was estimated at $2,500.

The Shepherds were awakened in the early morning hours when smoke in the downstairs drifted up through an open stairway door. They were able to leave the house through the downstairs with only the night clothes they were wearing. The house burned almost to the ground.

Mrs. Shepherd and one of the girls had their hair scorched slightly, but the family escaped just in time to avoid serious injury Allen said.

The house was partially covered by insurance.

The Shepherds are temporarily staying at the home of a brother-in-law, John Herrod, in Caledonia.

Suspect Sought In Slaying of Writer, Wife

Youth, 25, Wanted For Questioning in Death of Bodenheim

NEW YORK (AP)—Maxwell Bodenheim, bad boy writer of the 1920s, and a woman believed to have been his wife were found slain yesterday. A 25-year-old "fast talker" was sought by police today for questioning.

The 63-year-old Bodenheim was discovered with the woman in a cheap furnished room where drink and poverty had sent him after a spectacular and controversial career in the 1920s and 1930s as a writer of poetry and harsh fiction.

13-State Alarm Out

Police today issued a 13-state broadcast for Harold Weinberg, alias Joseph Greenburg, and warned that he "may be armed." Meanwhile, 50 picked detectives started a methodical search of Manhattan for clues.

One of the areas on which they concentrated was Greenwich Village, the bohemian mecca of artists and writers where Bodenheim had flourished and floundered.

Chief of Detectives Thomas A. Nielson told newsmen last night that "this is definitely not a robbery murder."

No other motive was indicated.

The room in which police found the bodies of Bodenheim and the woman, identified as Ruth Fagan, 35, had been rented three weeks ago in Weinberg's name.

Whether Bodenheim had registered under the Weinberg name or shared the room with Weinberg was not made known by police.

Police Give Description

The police alarm for Weinberg noted he had a scar under the chin and said he was "a fast talker." The alarm asked other officers to "make inquiries in your neighborhoods of all dry cleaners and tailor shops for bloodstains."

At the same time precincts in New York City were alerted to watch for a .22-caliber rifle or target pistol.

Bodenheim was shot in the chest. The woman was stabbed, and beaten almost beyond recognition. Both were fully clothed when found after the rooming house proprietor sawed off a padlock which had been placed on their room door from the outside.

On the dead novelist's chest was a copy of the best seller "The Sea Around Us," by Rachel Carson. No weapon was found.

A medical examiner said the couple had been slain in the 24 hours before discovery of the bodies.

Climaxes Career

The slaying climaxed Bodenheim's up-and-down career. He last made headlines two years ago when arrested for sleeping in a subway. Bleary-eyed and broke, he spent the night in jail. Friends finally put up his $25 bond.

In the 1920s he was a prominent figure in the literary world of Chicago and Greenwich Village.

He and author Ben Hecht helped to found the Chicago Literary Times, an irreverent chronicle of Chicago before the depression. The two also were members of Chicago's old cultural mecca, the Dill Pickle Club.

Others who frequented the Dill Pickle included playwright Charles MacArthur, Sherwood Anderson and others.

In Beverly Hills, Calif., today, Hecht asked, "Who would want to kill Bodenheim?" He added: "Nobody would have any reason to kill him that I could understand."

Close Friend of Writer

Bodenheim 'was a great friend," Hecht said, asserting that he last saw him about two years ago but that he had had a recent letter in which he told of being sickly and impoverished. Hecht said they met in Chicago in 1911 or 1912.

Bodenheim, born in Hermanville, Miss. had no formal education. He became a bitter critic of American civilization.

His novel "Replenishing Jessica" caused a sensation in 1925. Later it resulted in charges against the author for publishing an indecent work, but he was acquitted on grounds that he had received no royalties from the book's sale.

Among the novels he considered his best were "Blackguard," "Crazy Man," "Georgia May" and "Sixty Seconds." His verse included "Minna and Myself."

His peak was in the 1920s. By 1935 he was broke and on relief; at Bellevue Hospital he was diagnosed as an acute alcoholic.

INFERNO CONSUMES DEPARTMENT STORE. Building housing a department store is a blazing inferno silhouetting some of the firemen from surrounding communities that responded when a fire swept through the heart of the business district at Zion, Ill., Sunday. Equipment from nearly 40 nearby communities was used to bring the blaze under control. Damage was estimated at a million dollars. Four firemen were injured slightly. The fire was visible for about 30 miles. Zion is located on Lake Michigan about three miles south of the Illinois-Wisconsin state line.

Loss Estimated At $1 Million in Zion, Ill., Fire

ZION, Ill. (AP) — Armed patrols guarded the weekend ruins of a two-block section of historic Zion's business district ravaged by a million dollar fire Saturday night.

Firemen from nearly 40 communities helped in the four-hour fight to control the wind-whipped flames. The fire broke out in a block-long department store crowded with Saturday night shoppers while Zion's volunteer firemen square danced at a benefit to raise money for a department radio system.

There were no deaths in the fire, but Fire Chief Robert Burleigh, 61, of Fox Lake, Ill., died of a heart attack after returning home. His death was attributed to his exertions.

Four firemen were injured.

The fire, which a state marshal said apparently was the result of overloaded electric wiring, for a time menaced the entire business district of the town of 9,000 population.

Seven buildings were consumed and 12 others damaged.

Marion Boy, 11, Admits Thefts

Youth Arrested After Acme Cleaner Burglary

An 11-year-old Marion boy who has admitted to Marion police two break-ins at the Acme Cleaners at 134 Olney Ave. is being held in the Marion County Juvenile Detention Home.

The boy was picked up for questioning by Marion police Sunday after they investigated a report by David Jackson, operator of the cleaning shop, that it had been broken into Sunday morning.

Police reported entry had been gained by forcing open a window on the north side of the shop. The living quarters were ransacked, an adding machine was turned over, a cash register jammed, and an attempt had been made to open the safe.

Marion police detectives assigned to the case talked to the boy about this break-in, and he admitted taking gloves, a billfold, and keys from the shop. He also admitted breaking into the shop a week previously when he said he got about two or three dollars, police reported.

Police said charges will be filed in Juvenile Court.

Files on White, Others Misplaced

Brownell Cites Slipshod Control of Data on Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell says he raised the controversial issue of Harry Dexter White's 1946 promotion shortly after an FBI espionage report naming White was found last fall among some 20,000 misplaced documents.

"We found a great many evidences of slipshod work when we came in," Brownell said on a CBS television interview yesterday. He said the report on White had evidently been "shoved in a drawer" without evaluation.

Raised Issue in Speech

In a Nov. 6 speech, Brownell said former President Truman promoted White early in 1946 in the face of an FBI report indicating that he was under investigation as a Russian spy. Truman replied that he allowed White's promotion from the Treasury to the International Monetary Fund to go through so as not to jeopardize the FBI in its investigation. FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover testified the promotion made it more difficult to keep a watch on White.

White, shortly before his death in 1948, vigorously denied being a Communist or a spy.

Brownell was asked yesterday why he chose the time and occasion of a Chicago luncheon to discuss the case. He indicated he had learned of the 1945 FBI report only a short while before and said, "I thought of the quickest way I could to tell this story to the American people."

Missing Documents

Finding of the 20,000 "missing" documents was discussed also at "House appropriations hearings, made public yesterday, on the Justice Department's budget for the next fiscal year.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Warren Olney III, testifying Dec. 8, said the department has undertaken a review of allegations against all the individuals named in the 1945 FBI report which mentioned White. He did not name any.

He said there were "amazing" results from a housecleaning of Criminal Division files last September. None, or at least most, of the material had ever been to the department's record branch for recording. Many unanswered letters were found, some of them, dating back 15 years . . .

"Among other things found was the FBI report on Soviet espionage . . . We still do not know where it came from. It was somewhere in this mass of papers."

Hospital Reports Accident Victim in 'Critical' Condition

Mrs. Lois Lee, 46, of Sycamore remains in "critical" condition in City Hospital today as a result of the four-car traffic accident Saturday morning five miles north of Marion on Route 23. She is suffering from severe head injury.

Others still hospitalized from the accident are James Ellis, 4, Mrs. Lee's grandson, with a fractured collarbone and Karen Ellis, 6. Hospital authorities discribe their condition as "good". In "fairly good" condition are Mrs. Venetta Ellis, 27, of Upper Sandusky, driver of one of the cars, and Mrs. Dorothy Scott, 25, of Nevada. These five were all passengers in the Ellis car.

The sixth person injured, Claude Cook, 59, of Waldo, a passenger in a car driven by his son, Doyle Cook, is listed in "fair" condition.

According to the state highway patrol, the accident happened as follows:

Mrs. Ellis was driving toward Marion when she lost control of her car. It turned sideways in the road and was hit by a car driven by D. D. Fink, 30, of Upper Sandusky, who was following her. The Ellis car was then hit by the northbound vehicle of Cook; and a fourth car driven by Willie H. Watson, 29, of Detroit, following Fink and Ellis toward the city, collided with Fink's car. The Ellis and Cook cars were demolished and the other two were moderately damaged.

getting this program approved after Democratic and Republican presidents tried in vain for 45 years.

Sees Ike on TV

The national chairman said he thought the President, without making speeches in behalf of individual Republican candidates for Congress, will "go on television in behalf of and in support of his program, and in that way the various candidates will get the benefit of his support."

He told interviewers he considers Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) an asset to the Republican party nationally who "will and should" receive support by the entire party on the basis of his 1952 election by Wisconsin voters.

Asked whether the National Committee endorsed McCarthy's description of the Democratic party as "the party of betrayal," Hall noted the committee pays the expenses of McCarthy's speaking tours, as it does those of others. He said, "If that is an endorsement, yes."

Underlying Issue

He said he expects communism to be an underlying issue in the 1954 elections.

He said he thinks when the time comes for Eisenhower to consider seeking a second term "there'll be a demand which he canont escape."

The Senate has put off until next week all votes on the constitutional treaty-power amendment by Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio), which has split party ranks. Knowland said there is some hope that the cooling-off period might produce progress toward a compromise.

However, Bricker left for a vacation in Florida with the apparent idea that compromise efforts are over.

born March 23, 1905, a daughter of Byred and Rosetta Childs Williams.

Surviving are her four children by a previous marriage, Eugene Esterline of LaRue, Mrs. Evelyne Durham of Caledonia, Charles Esterline of 326 Park Blvd. in Marion, and Patricia Lee Esterline of Caledonia; five grandchildren, and three brothers and a sister, Carl Williams of Marion, Raymond and Altie Williams, both of Galion, and Mrs. Pearl Walton of Upper Sandusky.

The body was taken to the M. H. Gunder Sons Funeral Home on W. Center St.

Other City Accidents

Three cars parked on N. State St. were damaged in a hit-skip accident Sunday night.

Owners of the cars were B. E. Potts of 468 Girard Ave., Virgil Crabtree of Bucyrus, and Rev. Jesse Buck of 584 E. George St.

The three cars were sideswiped by a passing car, which failed to stop. Minor damage resulted.

In another accident investigated by Marion police over the weekend, no one was injured when a car driven by Charles Moore, 26, of 686 Hocking St., struck a New York Central train at the Barnhart St. crossing.

Moore told police his brakes failed to work properly. Engineer of the switch engine was H. Winand. The accident occurred at 10:45 a.m. Saturday.

Cars driven by Edwin L. Fry, 17, of 253 Edwards St., and J. R. Thompson, 20, of 327 Belmont St., collided at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at an alley intersection on Stark Ct.

At 3 p.m. Saturday cars driven by W. R. Lee, 19, of LaRue and Jack E. Freeman, 27, of 132 McWilliams Ct., were involved in a collision on W. Center St. at the New York Central Railroad crossing.

Jerry N. Monahan, 21, of near Marion, told police his automobile and a truck owned by Crawbaugh Gas Service of 113 N. Main St., which was parked, collided in an alley between Main and Prospect Sts. at 6:30 p.m.

4 Suffer Minor Injuries

Four persons were injured in three weekend accidents reported by the Marion post of the state highway patrol.

Three persons received minor injuries in an accident at 1:30 p.m. Saturday. Cars driven by Ernest Leroy Ford, 42, of near Marion, and Claudia W. Mathews of near Harpster, collided at the intersection of county roads 67 and 83.

Judith Mathews, 10, suffered bumps on her head, and both the driver of the Ford car and Arthur Ford, 38, a passenger, suffered cuts and bruises of the right knee.

Severe damage resulted to the Ford car, and moderate damage to the Mathews vehicle. Claudia Mathews was charged with failure to yield the right of way and cited to appear in Municipal Court Tuesday.

Thelma Pierron, a passenger in a car driven by Alfred Pierron, 39, of Springfield, suffered abrasions, bruises and a sprained neck in an accident at 2:30 p.m. Sunday on Route 4 south of Maron. According to the patrol, the Pierron car collided with an autmobile driven by Oscar C. Rice, 61, of near Marion. Thelma Pierron was taken to City Hospital by a passing motorist, treated there and released. Rice was charged with making an improper left turn and cited to appear in Municipal Court Friday.

No one was injured in a 12:30 p.m. Sunday accident. Cars driven by Levi H. Miley, 32, of near Richwood and Herbert M. McNeil, 57, of near Prospect, sideswiped each other on County Road 83, south of Green Camp, causing very minor damage, according to the patrol.

Aid for Aged Payments Awarded 871 in County

Of a total number of 106,613 persons in Ohio who received aid for the aged payments in January, 871 Marion Countians shared in receiving $48,440, for an average payment of $55.61.

The report released by the Ohio Division of Aid for the Aged also shows that of 88 deaths certified in the county during 1953, 25 burials were paid by the state. Total expenditures for these state burials amounted to $4,062 for an average expenditure of $162.

Aid payments for surrounding counties included Crawford, $27,637; Delaware, $32,791; Hardin, $39,809; Morrow, $19,702; Union, $32,478; and Wyandot, $17,161.

tion, but it gave a challenging answer to Molotov's picture of East Germany as a happy land, "free" to vote in elections for a list of Red-picked candidates with no questions permitted.

In their first two weeks of debate the four ministers had agreed on absolutely nothing. No one in the Western camp could say just how they would stop the oratory long enough to perhaps harvest some small gains.

The West already had given up reunification and a peace treaty for Germany as a hopeless dream for years or even generations.

"Perhaps we can try again every two years or so," said one ranking Westerner.

Another remarked that Pietro Nenni, leader of Italy's Communist-allied Socialists, had said after a visit to Stalin that the late Russian leader had told him the world must get used to living with a divided Germany.

The Austrian government, which unlike Germany is already united, indicated it wants 48 hours notice before negotiations on the independence pact so it can send its delegates to Berlin to dicker with the Big Four.

Man Given 5-Day Jail Term on Traffic Charge

John L. McIntyre, 40, of 152½ N. tate St., was fined $100, sentenced to five days in the county jail, and his driver's license was suspended for three years by Municipal Court Judge W. Dexter Hazen when he pleaded guilty this morning to charges of driving while intoxicated.

Other arrested by Marion police over the weekend were M. R. Larson, 31, of Brookings, S. D., no safety chains; W. E. Sayre, 18, of Robertsburg, W. Va., insufficient brakes; and Don Gene Wright, 22, of Morral, George W. Evans, 34, of 214 Edwards St., and Melvin R. Bortsheller, 26, of 230 Uhler Ave., all on speeding charges.

Victim of Auto Mishap Removed to Cardington

A former Marion resident, Mrs. Marjorie A. Cook, was released last week from the Defiance City Hospital, and taken to the home of her brother, Frank Everett of Cardington. She had been a patient in the hospital since Dec. 13, admitted there following an automobile accident in Putnam County.

Mrs. Cook was seriously injured in the accident, suffering a fractured pelvis bone, fractured right hand and fracture of both jaws, along with numerous cuts and bruises.

In the accident, a former Marion County man, Ellis Minor, and two Putnam County people were killed.

Auto Crash Kills Five

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—Five persons, including four in one family, were killed last night in a head-on collision on Flint's eastern outskirts.

A 4-year-old girl, Janice, was the sole survivor of the William M. Lemin family of Davison. Lemin, 28, his wife Carole, 24, and their daughters, Dawn, 2, and Deborah, 3 months, all were killed.

warning shots in the air and when Kinnear didn't stop again gave chase. By this time another city police car had joined the chase. The four cars sped north at speeds near 100 miles an hour. On the way, police radioed ahead to Bucyrus and police there had a semi-trailer truck pulled across the road as a road-block.

SEEING THE TRUCK, Kinnear took to the ditch on the left side of the road and managed to get around the truck but narrowly missed striking a Bucyrus policeman in the process.

A short distance further on the Marion cruiser caught up with Kinnear and forced him into the curb.

Later at the Marion police station, Kinnear was charged with speeding and resisting arrest. Both the Delaware police and the state highway patrol also want to press charges against him.

After he was stopped in Bucyrus, Kinnear's only remark according to Marion Police Chief Thomas Coon was, "I guess I should have stopped in Delaware."

Kinnear is being held in the Marion city jail pending filing of charges.

Boys' Model Plane Lost in 'Solo' Flight

Anybody seen a low-flying plane without a pilot?

Seems one of the "Wright brothers", 1954 style, has become separated from a model airplane which decided at 5 p.m. Sunday to take a little flight all on its own. It was last seen flying near Sawyer Sanatorium and toward Oakland Heights.

The "pilot" and the owner, who are Marion Star newspaperboys, are Paul and Albert Steiner, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Steiner of near Marion. They're a little concerned about the craft, which is propelled by an O. K. Cub Diesel engine. Apparently the timer of the plane forgot when it was time to shut off and glide down to earth again, so the plane kept going. The tank holds about two minutes' worth of fuel, Paul reported, so the plane couldn't have gone too far.

Disappearing model planes aren't so uncommon, Paul commented. Last year one of their collection pieces flew off, destination unknown, when it was caught by a strong tailwind.

Jury To Determine Fair Value of Land

A Probate Court jury was being selected this morning to determine the fair market value of a parcel of Marion County land sought by the Ohio Power Company of Canton.

The utility company is seeking the land to complete its installation of electric power lines between Mt. Vernon and Kenton. Owners of the land, located in Richland Township, are E. Merley and Emma Sipes. They are being represented by Carter M. Patton, Marion attorney.

The Ohio Power Co. is being represented by the Canton law firm of Day, Cope, Ketterer, Raley and Wright, and the Marion firm of Guthery, Harmon, Conkle and Gracely.

Probate Judge E. J. Ruzzo is hearing the case. Jurors were to be taken to the Sipes property this morning.

New Officers Installed By Future Homemakers

The New Bloomington chapter of the Future Homemakers of America was host to the LaRue and Meeker Chapters when the host group installed officers recently.

Officers installed were: Barbara Persinger, president; Joanne Carozza, vice president; Nancy Ullmer, secretary; Dixie Criswell, treasurer; Betty Lou James, parliamentarian; and Linnea Gonzalez, historian.

The chapter was formed Sept. 1, 1953, at the school by 21 charter members and the advisor, Mrs. Clifton Wenig. Mrs. Elizabeth Ullmer is chapter mother.

Grease Fire in House Causes $300 Damage

The Marion Fire Department answered one fire alarm over the weekend.

At 11:48 a.m. Saturday firemen from the Central station answered an alarm at the residence of Joseph Yannitell of 791 Waples Ave. Firemen report a kettle of grease had caught fire on the stove, smudging the house and burning the curtains and window frames.

Firemen estimated damage at $300.

Masonic Lodge Honors Its 50-Year Members

Fifty-year members were honored recently at a stated communication of LaRue Lodge No. 463, F&AM.

James Woods, past master of Marseilles Lodge, who was introduced by Lowell Swartz, master of the LaRue Lodge, presented a 50-year membership pin to his father, Aubrey Woods.

A brief talk on the history of the lodge was given by Dr. Harry Hoopes.

Recognition was given J. W. Hoagland of LaRue and Roland Stanford of Marseilles who have been Masons for more than 50 years.

Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Second Edington Trial Will Be Held on Feb. 18

A second jury will be impaneled Feb. 18 in Common Pleas Court to hear testimony on charges of breaking and entering faced by Howard E. Edington, 23, of 358 Milburn Ave.

A jury hearing the case on Jan. 29 was dismissed by Judge Paul D. Smith after failing to reach unanimous decision as required by state law in a criminal action. Edington was indicted by a grand jury who charged he broke into the Stag Bar and Grill at 462 W. Center St. on Dec. 11 and attempted to open the safe there.

Edington is being represented by his court-appointed attorney, Frank W. Phillips.

Job Unfinished

By George Sokolsky

Despite numerous attacks on McCarthy and McCarthyism, the Wisconsin senator won a decision of confidence when the Senate by 85 to 1 voted to provide his investigative subcommittee with the funds for which he asked.

SOKOLSKY

For several months there had been reports and rumors that McCarthy's subcommittee would be killed by withholding funds from it. As a matter of fact, last July, when the Democrats retired from the committee, I was told that a fight would be made on providing further funds for this committee.

Nevertheless, when it came to a showdown, even those who have been critical of McCarthy voted for funds.

When the Democratic members returned to the subcommittee on investigations, it was after a series of conferences in the course of which Sen. McCarthy agreed to most of the Democratic stipulations, some of which the Democrats in other years had rejected for the Republicans and some of which had previously been rejected by McCarthy.

THE MINORITY members, for instance, are to have a counsel of their own; they are to have a voice in the hiring and firing of staff members; they can veto open hearings which may be repugnant to them.

While it is true that McCarthy wanted the Democrats to return, the Democrats were as keenly anxious to return to the committee, although they gave a different impression.

McCarthy wanted them back because this is a bipartisan government and all committees of Congress ought to have majority and minority members.

The Democrats walked out and deserted the committee, which they had no business to do. Their responsibility was to remain on the committee and fight for what they believed to be right.

The Democrats wanted to come back because as long as they stayed off the committee, the Republicans could do as they pleased, and if they turned up material to the detriment of the Roosevelt and Truman administrations, the Democrats were not able to protect their party. Besides, such senators as John McClelland and Stuart Symington are anti-Communist and are not, at heart, opposed to Sen. McCarthy's work.

THE SITUATION is that the Democrats are back on the committee and the Senate has voted McCarthy the funds requested by 85 to 1, the only senator opposing being Fulbright of Arkansas, who is internationally-minded. Internationalism can lead men into curious intellectual directions.

Sen. McCarthy undoubtedly could agree to all the conditions that the Democrats proposed because they also face public opinion.

For instance, they cannot possibly oppose an investigation into the affairs of Maj. Irving Peress, who took a Fifth Amendment on all inquiries as to his Communist affiliations about which the Army had due notice last August.

The open hearing on this matter will be held in New York on February 18 and if the attitude of Maj. Peress is the same in the open hearing as it was in the closed, this could become a major scandal leading to an investigation of the Army Loyalty Board and even some of the top brass.

Maj. Peress was honorably discharged from the Army while being investigated by a congressional committee which alleged that he recruited members for the Communist party in the Army.

This is so unusual that no member of Congress can risk his reputation by opposing an open hearing. In fact, Maj. Peress ought to demand such a hearing to protect his status, if he can afford it.

AN AMERICAN has the right to state his case before the proper tribunal and, in this instance, the proper tribunal is the committee which discovered the case.

This case is not extraordinary. There are many before this committee which are not completed, such as the Voice of America, the Fort Monmouth case, the GE cases, the Alaska case, etc.

These will have to be completed no matter who sits on this committee because public opinion will demand it.

It has been suggested that cases which involve matters that occurred in the 1940's be forgotten. That is impossible. No current situations can be disclosed until their roots are uncovered.

This country has been sorely damaged by espionage and treachery in time of war and immediately after the war.

Those engaged in these activities have benefited by the cover-up which was arranged for them by well-meaning but often stupid men. The cover-up must be destroyed.

Rift in CIO

By Victor Riesel

There are well informed men very high in CIO who have told me privately that they would be sorrowed, but not surprised, to see CIO disband by the end of 1954.

RIESEL

These men are not factionalists. Indeed, some are loyal supporters of Walter Reuther, having swung the balance of power to him when he needed it to become CIO president in 1952.

My informants agree that rapidly developing differences between Reuther and the more conservative David McDonald, head of the CIO's Steelworkers Union, will probably mean the end of CIO.

It is always pointed out that they are talking about CIO as a national organization — and not the CIO unions themselves, which will continue to retain their individual power. But most likely inside the AFL, these sources speculate.

Here's how this dramatic development is outlined:

Recently, the Steelworkers' Union executive board met in San Bernardino, Calif. There the high command of this 1,250,000-membered union in our most strategic industry gave their chief, David McDonald, what was, in effect, a vote of confidence and a free hand to deal with the White House and with other labor leaders.

-:-

McDONALD THEN went on with his tour of the plants of U.S. Steel Corp. with its president, Ben Fairless — showing a confidence and rapport with American industry, while all other sections of CIO are lasting big business.

Between now and next September, McDonald will continue his private talks with John L. Lewis, an avowed enemy of Walter Reuther. He will also keep on visiting steel plants, not only with Fairless but with executives of other steel corporations.

The time for decision for David McDonald will be the third Monday in September. His union's convention opens then, probably in Atlantic City. My sources believe that McDonald will, at that time, urge his 1,250,000 Steelworkers to quit Reuther and the CIO. If the powerful steel union leaves, others will follow.

My sources reason this way:

In addition to the bitter personal animosity between Reuther and McDonald, there are the sharpest political and ideological conflicts.

REUTHER IS ONE of the leaders of the Americans for Democratic Action and the Truman-Stevenson wing of the Democratic party. He is directing and financing an intense political fight to wipe the Republican party out of Congress in 1954 and out of the White House in 1956.

On the other hand, McDonald today is positively considered "a friend" in high Republican circles in and out of the White House. There have been important personal telephone conferences between him and Republican officials seeking advice on labor problems.

This does not necessarily make McDonald a Republican. But it does very sharply split him politically from Reuther — and deviates him from the basic direction of the Political Action Committee in which Victor and Roy Reuther will be very active.

In addition to these differences in attitude towards American industry and the Republicans, there is disagreement on the approach to the war-to-peace interim recession mentioned in President Eisenhower's letter to Reuther.

Only the other day, as Reuther was accusing the administration of ignoring what the CIO charges is a real depression, McDonald said, in effect, that the unemployment situation is not very serious and that less than 10 per cent of his Steelworkers are now jobless.

THIS HITS at the core of CIO's fight against the administration.

While McDonald has ready and friendly access to the White House through such "anonymous" secretaries as Max Raab, who thinks highly of the Steelworkers' chief, the White House is cracking down on Reuther right in the heart of his auto domain.

Secretary of Labor James Mitchell will fly out to Flint, Mich., on Feb. 23 to speak at a meeting in the city which many consider the birthplace of the Auto Workers Union. There, in the late thirties, Flint's militant workers seized plants and "sat down" in a strike heard round the world.

On Feb. 23 Mitchell will not only speak, he will go right into these plants starting immediately after breakfast. All day, he'll talk to the men on the lathes and assembly lines —and Jim Mitchell knows how to talk to militant workers. He's handled them most of his professional life.

He'll be President Eisenhower's "personal business agent" right there in Reuther territory. After that, certainly, no friend of the White House can be a friend of Reuther.

New Role for Joe

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—At 68 many men and women feel they are through.

But at 68 Giovanni Martinelli, one of the great voices of our century, began a bright new career as a salesman.

HAL BOYLE

He now sells what he used to sing — opera.

"I am a bridge now," he said, "a bridge of explanation."

It is really his greatest role. In his lifetime as one of the finest tenors within living memory he estimates he has sung to some 7,000 audiences around the world.

TODAY, EACH Sunday, he capsules in "Opera Cameo," a Dumont television network feature, the plots of operas he used to sing himself. His job is to explain what the vocal artists are yodeling about.

Giovanni, sometimes called Joe, was and is a tremendous artist, a nice chunky guy with flaming blue eyes and a big mop of white, white hair. It is ironic that now he can reach more people with a conversational tone than he could in the days when he could match a high note with any man in the tenor industry. But Joe doesn't mind.

"It is enough for me that more people now love opera," he said. Tenors are generally as jealous of each other as women. Joe may have his jealousies, but in a talk with him I couldn't discover them. He sang dramatic roles for the Metropolitan Opera for 34 consecutive years. He is comfortably sure that no schoolboy will remove his honor.

"To be a singer is to be serious," Joe said. "I never smoked, I drank only enough to be comfortable with my friends—a little glass of wine.

"No, I didn't go in for gymnastics to stay fit. I cannot say I love sports, because I do not. But I like to walk, and every day I walk.

"I learned another thing in the 40 years I sang—never to walk my worries home. Singing is a very difficult career. It must be realized, if one is to enjoy this world, that its pleasures must be enjoyed parsimoniously. They must be disciplined."

WHEN I ASKED JOE who he thought was the greatest singer he had knowledge of, he named the only man I have never heard another tenor admit he could equal.

"I can only say he is a man who has been a long, long time in heaven—Enrico Caruso," he said. "I will not discuss his voice. You must agree that all tenors have a voice. But Caruso could put his heart in his voice as no other man ever could, and those who deliberately try to do what he could do can only be an imitation, for even if they had his voice—and they don't—they cannot match his heart."

MARTINELLI, in talking about singers, speaks more of heart than voice.

"After all, we are human—not just an instrument," he said. "Singing is an intimate pleasure. You must enjoy it yourself, first, if you are to communicate it to others.

"But it is hard. When is the time to quit? It is not really the voice that goes. It is the heart that gives us the advice to slow down. There comes a time when the heart says, 'take it easy, Giovanni, take it easy.'"

A smile came over Martinelli's pale, expressive face, and he said: "On television I am in a spotlight, not behind the footlights. It is new to me but beautiful. No, I have not retired. I talk, but a singe sometimes does not like to hear his voice when he is talking.

"Yes, I am happy. I still love to sing for those who want me to . . . but only a few songs . . . only a few . . . then the heart says, 'No, Giovanni, no more.'"

Parma Court Clerk Admits Charges of Misconduct, Quits

CLEVELAND (AP)—The suburban Parma clerk of courts, saying he "didn't know what came over me," admitted today he had homosexual relations with several teen-age boys and embezzled $1,000 in parking fine money.

Charles W. Custer, a 32-year-old former policeman, signed a written confession and submitted a resignation which was demanded by Municipal Judge George P. Allen.

Custer's confession also implicated his 28-year-old roommate who is being held for questioning.

Ten Parma youths, most of them high school students, have linked both men to a series of wild parties in their apartment, police said.

In searching the apartment, police said, they found a large supply of liquor and pornographic literature. Between 500 and 600 old parking tickets, on which Custer had collected the money but not turned it over to the suburb, were found in his garage.

6 DIE IN CRASH

YUMA, Ariz. (AP) — Six persons were killed last night in the head-on collision of a pickup truck and a sedan on a hilltop 10 miles southwest of here on Highway 95.

A third automobile was hit by the skidding truck and two persons were injured.

PARIS CRASH FATAL

CINCINNATI (AP) — The body of Louis K. Benjamin, 37, a foreign service staff officer stationed in Madrid, Spain, will be cremated in Paris, his family here reported today. Benjamin died yesterday from injuries received in an automobile accident near Paris.

Hiker's Body Found

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP)—The body of a hiker who slid 1,000 feet to the bottom of a canyon in the San Gabriel Mountains lay in a miner's cabin near snowcrest today after icy slopes halted rescue operations.

Dep. Coroner A. J. McCann said Herbert Patnaude, 48, Los Angeles, may have died of a heart attack before he slid into San Antonio canyon yesterday.

Congressional Election Issues Shaping Up Fast

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — If events, like a horse, could be made to stand still, the Democrats and Republicans already would have their main issues for the 1954 congressional election in November.

The Democrats are hammering on the downturn in business which has occurred under the Eisenhower administration.

And the Republicans are working overtime on the subject of Communists-in-government under the Democrats.

By election time, business conditions may have leveled off, as administration economists say they will. If they don't, the Democrats will have a talking point probably overshadowing everything else.

And the issue of Communists-in-government may be pushed into the background by other developments before then.

For instance, by November Congress will have finished this year's work on Eisenhower's program, which affects practically everyone: taxes, social security, unions, business, tariffs.

The President himself has said that if his party doesn't put over a progressive program it doesn't deserve to win. The congressional score on his program will provide plenty of election issues.

But at this time, before Congress even begins to act on most of the program, Communists-in-government and the economic reverse have given the politicians on both sides something to talk about.

For 20 years, beginning in the 1932 campaign, the Democrats banged away at the fact that the big depression began under the Republicans, which may explain one reason for their hitting so hard on the downturn now.

When some Republicans reacted with the charge that talk of a recession is unethical and almost un-American, it may have been an indication that recession talk was getting under their skin.

And although Eisenhower himself said, when asked about this, that everyone is entitled to his own opinion, he, too, denounced the "prophets of gloom and doom."

Over the weekend Sherman Adams, former governor of New Hampshire and now Eisenhower's assistant, said Democrats and "left-wingers" are trying to "foist" a "Fear Deal" on the people.

That the Republicans are meeting recession talk head on so fast can be considered both a mark of their aggressiveness and a sign that this is going to be a rough political year.

Atty. Gen. Brownell gave notice of rugged days ahead near last year's end with his attack on former President Truman.

The man Brownell twice tried to steer into the presidency, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, stepped up the tough talk not only about Truman but Democrats in general.

In a December speech, Dewey told a Hartford, Conn., audience that for the rest of their lives they must associate the words "Truman and Democrat" with "diplomatic failure, military failure, death and tragedy."

Now Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), who has been making Communists-in-government an issue for four years and wants to keep it one, is going around the country saying that while there are some exceptions among the Democrats their party has tagged itself as standing for "government of, by and for Communists . . ."

Official of Baker Wood Named by Forestry Unit

J. Clyde English, vice president of the Baker Wood Preserving Co., was named a vice president of the Ohio Forestry Association at the group's annual meeting in Cleveland last week.

As a vice president, he will be chairman of the education committee and will conduct a vigorous information service for Ohio farmers and woodlot owners, as well as for the other committees of the Association on timbering practice, oak wilt, soil conservation and tree planting.

Dr. K. Starr Chester, chief of the bioscience and agriculture division of the Battelle Memorial Institute of Columbus, took office as president for the second half century of service of the Association to the farms and forests, individuals and industries, of our state.

TURNS IN PISTOL

CINCINNATI (AP)—Thomas Adams, 39, walked into police headquarters last night and slapped a pistol on a police sergeant's desk. He told the startled police he was wanted in connection with the death earlier in the day of Robert Rhodes, 52. Rhodes died during a fight over a woman in Rhodes' apartment, police reported. Adams said he got the pistol when he disarmed Rhodes. He was held on an open charge.

B&O Spokesman Sets Loss in Wreck at Million

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—A Baltimore and Ohio spokesman estimates damage at one million dollars in Friday's collision of the crack National Limited and a switching engine.

B&O General Manager John Edwards said the accident, in which 13 units were derailed and 7 persons injured, resulted when the engineer of the switching car moved out "beyond his orders."

The damage was to 300 yards of track, 10 passenger cars, a mail car, 2 diesel units—all of which were derailed—and to the switching engine. Three passenger cars remained on the tracks.

One of 600 passengers was injured. The other injured were railroad employes. All were treated at hospitals and discharged.

Hunger Flushes 3 Alabama Convicts From Hiding Place

BAY MINETTE, Ala. (AP)—Hunger forced the remaining three uncaptured Atmore Prison escapees out in the open last night—but their brief appearance only brought pursuit and no food.

The trio apparently desperately hungry, entered the cabin of an aged Negro and demanded food at knifepoint.

But the Negro fled, said Highway Patrol Lt W. L. Whitten, and his story pinpointed the search to a backwoods area seven miles north of here.

The deadly hunt now is in its fourth day.

The three—Ned Capinelli, Adrian McCrandell and James Norton Guy—are the only ones still at large of nine long-termers who slipped away under Atmore Prison Thursday night through an electrical tunnel.

In the 13 years of the "great migration," 1630-1642, nearly 20,000 Englishmen sailed for the New World to settle in and around Massachusetts Bay Colony.

B. G. COURSE OPENS

ACROSS THE COUNTER

"It is some compensation for great evils that they enforce great lessons." So said the French philosopher Rousseau.

In our opinion, this holds true for "little evils" too. They serve as horrible examples to enforce "little lessons." Take the usually small evils of NO INSURANCE OR UNDER-INSURANCE. These evils are deceptive. Often they will do no major harm for years.

Earl J. Andrews

As long as no loss occurs no one is badly hurt. But the particular year one guesses "wrong," the blow may be crippling. And, worst of all, the loss may occur as soon as tomorrow.

Unless you want to serve as the classic example of "what happens" when there is no insurance or very little, see us. Don't force your creditors, bank and dependents to help you share a loss which one of our insurance companies would have gladly paid.

The only thing you'd gain is to enforce a little lesson: Insurance premiums are a lot easier to meet than a big loss!"

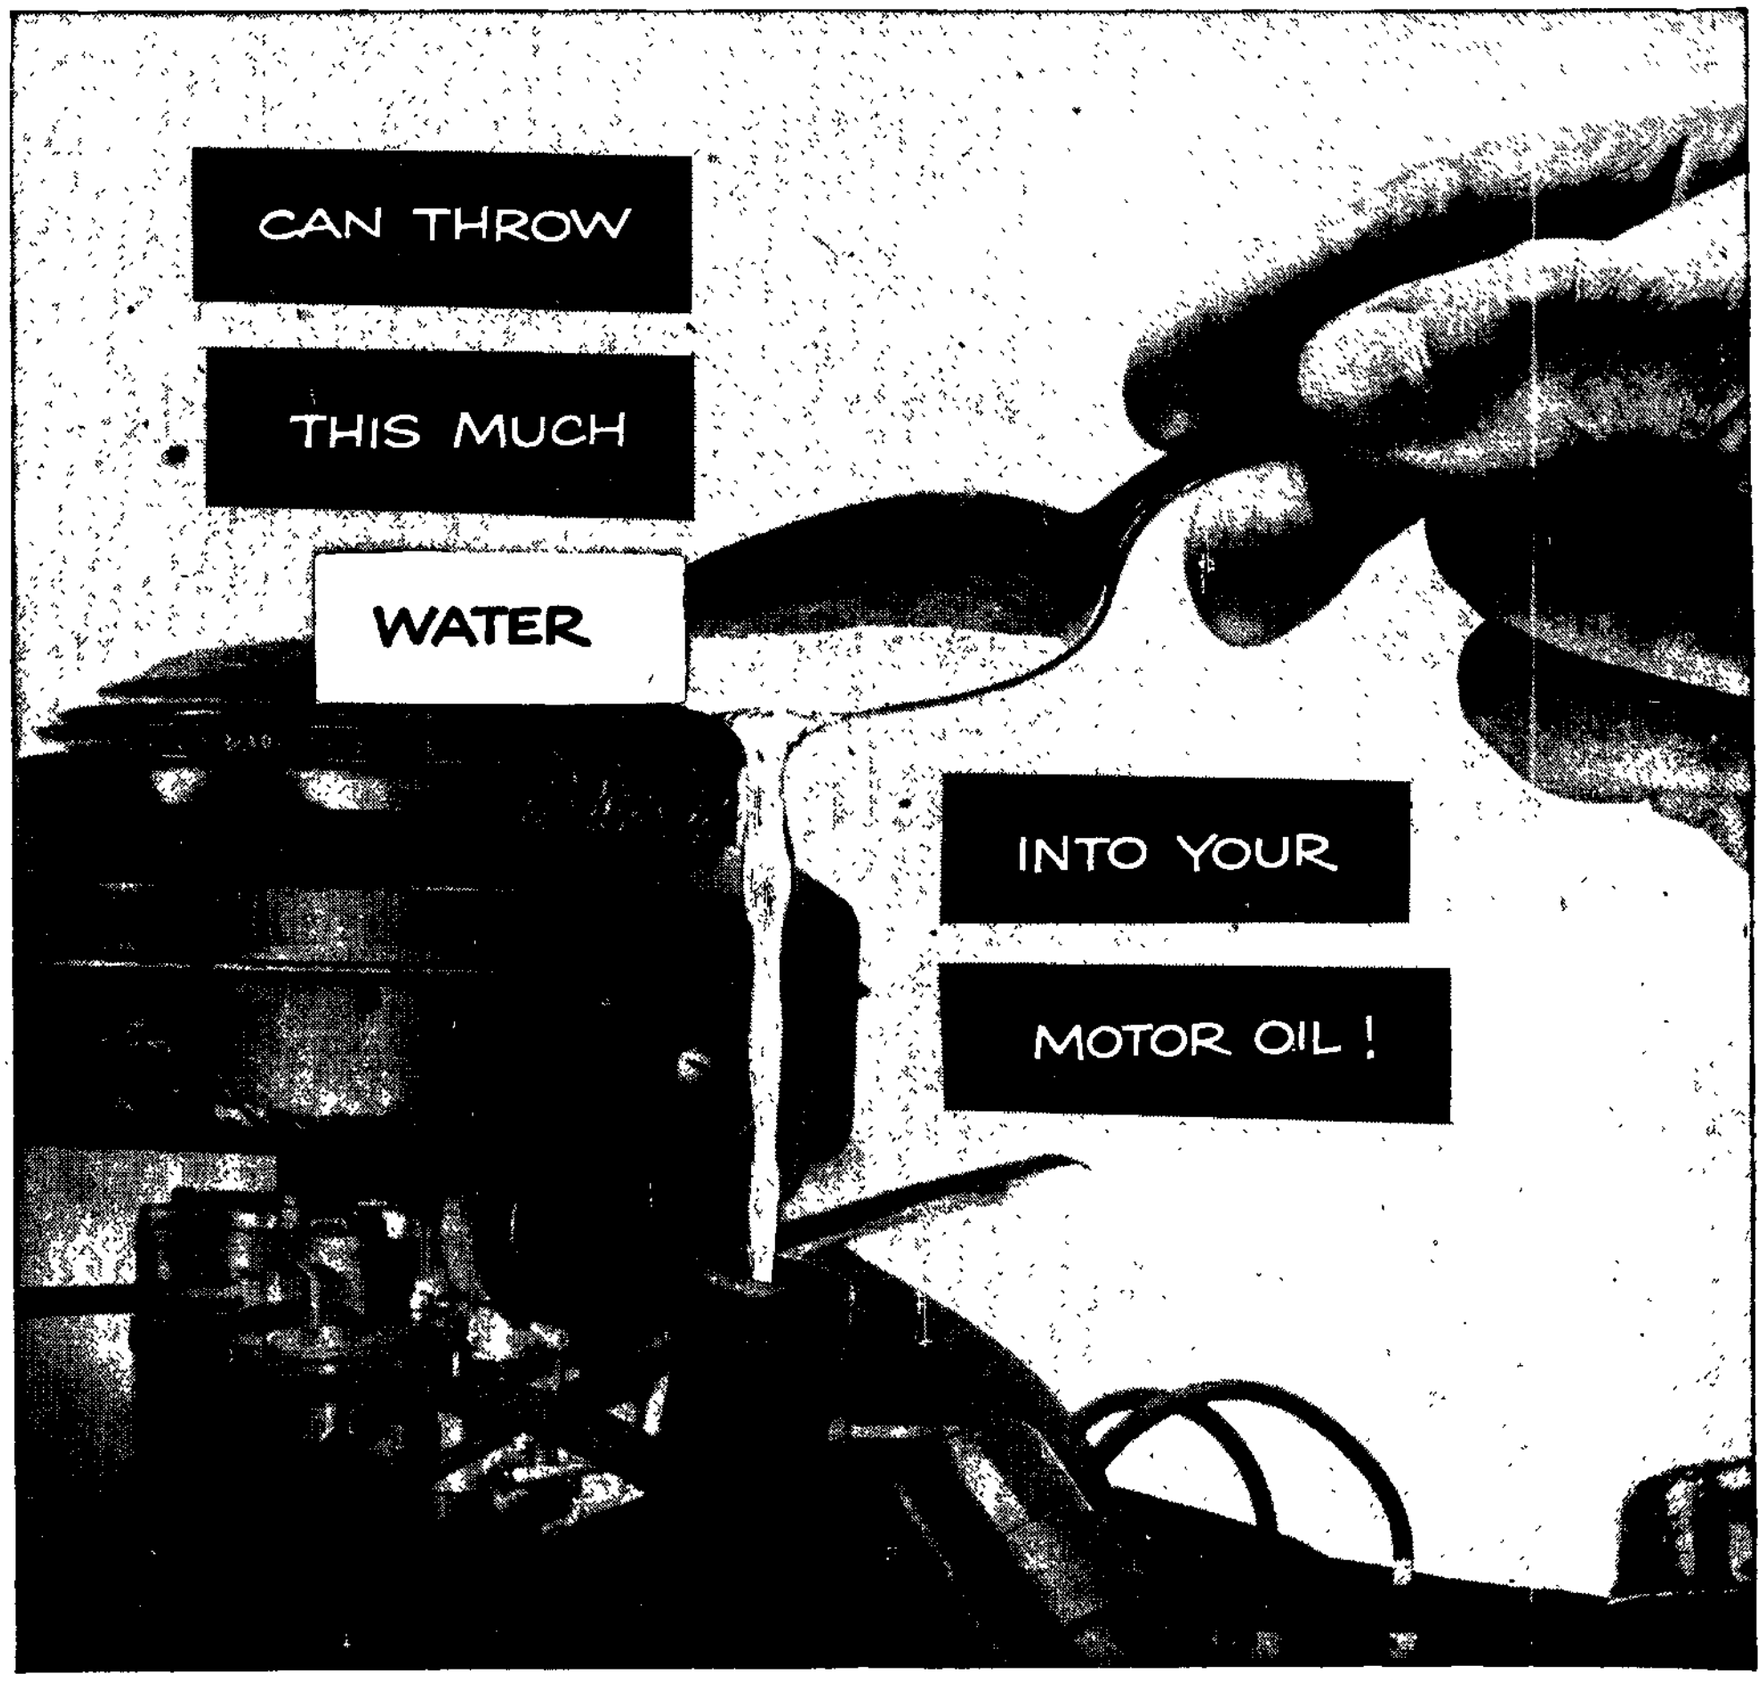
EVERY COLD-ENGINE START-



Every time you start your engine on a cold day, water vapor formed by burning gasoline condenses on your cold engine walls and drips into your motor oil. As much as a tablespoon of water is thrown into your oil with every cold-engine start!

Don't be fooled by your temperature gauge. Your oil takes two or three times as long to warm up as your radiator water. So, even after a 10 or 15 mile trip—long after your water temperature gauge says "warm"—your oil may still not be warm enough to expel the moisture. The water that remains in your oil combines with other contaminants to form thick, gooey sludge.

Gasoline also gets into your oil. Because of extra choking during cold weather, unburned gasoline drips into your motor oil, thinning it out. Contaminated by sludge and gasoline, your oil becomes unfit for duty much sooner in winter than it does in summer. Unchecked, this cold-weather contamination can lead to worn engine parts, clogged piston rings, and stopped-up oil lines and screens.

TO KEEP WINTER-CONTAMINATED OIL FROM HURTING YOUR ENGINE:

(1) Do as your auto maker advises: DRAIN OIL MORE OFTEN IN WINTER

Owners' operating manuals from virtually every car manufacturer recommend how to keep your engine protected during cold weather. They say, "Drain oil more often in winter." Draining oil more often during cold weather is a low-cost way to protect the expensive investment you have in your car.

(2) Keep your engine cleaner between drains—with HQD MOTOR OIL

Since Sohio HQD motor oil contains a triple-strength detergent, it cleans as it lubricates. Like all oil, HQD should be drained more often in winter, but it keeps your engine cleaner between drains. HQD removes sludge and other dirt from vital engine parts, and holds it in suspension so it drains out at oil-drain time.

Let HQD help you lick the problem of cold-weather contamination in your engine.

North Carolina estimates that cotton farmers lost 25 million dollars to the boll wevil in that state in 1953.

Bucyrus Teachers Request Pay Hikes

BUCYRUS — The Bucyrus Board of Education has taken under advisement a request by representatives of the Bucyrus Teachers' Association for a raise in their pay schedule.

Board President M. P. Paetznick has appointed board members, Fred C. Ward and Franklin Roberts, to study the proposal and make a report at the March meeting of the board.

Representatives of the teachers' group told board members that the association had met last week and members had indicated they were dissatisfied with the present salary schedule.

The present schedule, which became effective Jan. 1, 1953, ranges from $2,300 a year for an inexperienced teacher with two years' college training to $4,025 for a teacher with a master's degree and 16 years' teaching experience.

Barons Break Even in 2 Weekend Hockey Clashes

Home Win Streak Extended In Overtime Battle Sunday

The Marion Barons broke even in a pair of weekend encounters and are still resting in second place. The Barons dropped a 3-2 decision at Toledo Saturday night and yesterday downed Fort Wayne at the Coliseum by the same count.

The Toledo win Saturday cut the Barons' second-place hold to a single point over the Mercs but the win yesterday lifted it back to three. Marion has 60 points while the third-place Toledo club has 57.

In the Sunday game, Marion and Fort Wayne hooked up in a scoreless duel for the first 40 minutes of action before both teams exploded for a pair of goals in the third period to send the game into the overtime session. It was the first overtime in which the Barons had been involved this year.

Seventh at Home

The 3-2 verdict was the seventh straight win on the home ice for the Barons. Their last loss here occurred Jan. 3 when Toledo walked away with a win.

Neither team could seriously dent the defense thrown against them in the first two periods yesterday. Hard body checking highlighted the play as Marion's defensemen, Steve Brklacich, Ot Heller, Phil Vitale and Ted Lebioda, broke up numerous Komet thrusts at the goal. Both Lou Crowdis and the visitors' Ivan Walmsley batted away 12 shots during the first period. The same pattern was followed in the second period with vicious blocking against the boards.

After only 42 seconds of play in the third period, Ken Schultz shoved the Barons into the lead when he scored from directly in front of the net. Hal Jones received an assist on his pass. Walmsley had been involved in a scramble and was out of position to block the shot.

Billy Watson put his Komet mates back into the game after a minute and 16 seconds had elapsed. He scored on a power play after taking a pass from Orrin Gould. At the time of that score, the Komets were using five forwards with no defensive men. At the middle of the period, the Komets grabbed a 2-1 lead. George Drysdale drove one into the net on a shot from the point. Lou Crowdis' vision was blocked by a screen of players in front of the net.

Schultz Scores

Brklacich and Schultz teamed up to knot the score at the 13:20 mark. Brklacich tried a long shot from just inside the blue line and the score was notched when Schultz deflected the puck into the net. Both defenses tightened to send the game into the 10-minute overtime session.

The 2,830 fans attending the game, saw Wimpy Jones drive in the winning score after a minute and 39 seconds of play in the extra session. He scored on a combination pass from Hal Jones and Dutch Delmonte. Delmonte narrowly missed adding an insurance tally at the middle of the period when he stole the puck at center ice and raced in for a score. His shot was missed by a lunging Walmsley but hit the post at the corner of the goal and bounced the wrong way. Schultz came within a whisker of notching another hat trick with only nine seconds left in the game. Walmsley had been pulled to add more scoring punch to the Komets' attack and Schultz raced down the ice toward the open net. He shot, from just over his blue line, was about two feet wide of the nets.

Tony Poeta and Fort Wayne's Jack Timmins each had apparent goals called back. Poeta's came in the first period and Timmins' in the second. On both plays, Linesman Freddie Blackburn detected offside violations.

Toledo's lightning line came through in the Saturday game at Toledo with the winning marker after two minutes and 32 seconds had elapsed in the final period. Johnny Kovich pumped in the clincher with assists going to Dick Pontarollo and Roy Hammond.

Schultz Scores

The score came after Ken Schultz had knotted the count at 2-2 with 24 seconds gone. Schultz scored on a pass from Hal Jones.

The Mercurys broke the ice when Harrison scored at the 10.36 mark of the first period on a pass from Beauchamp. Gordon Vejprava tied the score on a goal at 14.13 Steve Brklacich assisted on the play.

Chuck Wood shoved the winners back into the lead after 3:03 of the second period. He was assisted by McCaig and Walker. A Marion goal was overruled by the officials when it was decided a Baron had skated into the goal crease on the shot. During an ensuing argument, Dutch Delmonte was handed a 10-minute misconduct penalty. Tony Poeta and Novak were waved to the box for 10 minute violations after they were broken apart in a fight by the officials.

Lou Crowdis finished the Saturday game with 32 saves. Toledo's Bill Tibbs batted out 21 Marion shots.

A total of 3,490 fans saw the game at Toledo. The total was boosted by several fans from Marion who made the trip on the first hockey special from Marion. It was the last game of the season between the two clubs and Toledo finished with a 5-3 edge.

Next home appearance for the Barons will be next Sunday when they entertain the fast-improving Milwaukee Chiefs. Tuesday, the Marion team will be at Fort Wayne for the last meeting of the year with the Komets. Saturday night the team travels to Grand Rapids.

Bevo Francis To Resume Attack On Collegiate Scoring Records

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Collegiate cagers of Ohio figure to make a bit of history this week.

The spotlight is on Rio Grande. Big Bevo Francis, one-man gang of the hill country Redmen, stole the show last week by piling up 113 points against Hillsdale, Mich., erasing his national one-game record of 84 set earlier in the season.

That gave the big fellow 993 for the 20-game campaign, and he's a cinch to go over the 1,000-mark this week as he goes against Anderson, Ind., tomorrow night, and Salem at Huntington, W. Va., Saturday.

Aided by Bevo's terrific total, the Rio Grandes should top the 2,000 figure this week, too Coach Newt Oliver's rampaging Redmen have 1,896 for the season, an astounding 94.8 average. Bevo is just 7 points away from a 50 average.

For his college career, after counting 1,954 in 39 straight wins a year ago, Francis has 2,947—just three counters off the half-century average. The three-year major college record is 2,537 held by Seattle's Johnny O'Brien, and the 4-year small college mark is 2,445 held by Nate Delong of River Falls, Wis., State Teachers. Bevo has moved far past each of them.

While Rio is leading the pack in scoring averages, Bowling Green is moving at exactly 90 per game. Findlay has 86.8, and state and Ohio Conference leader Marietta 84.3. Just to show how rapid the current scoring pace is, the state's 41 colleges are averaging 74.2. During the campaign 35 scores of 100 or better have been chalked up, with Rio Grande going over the century 6 times.

A huge 54-game slate faces the Ohioans this week, 21 against out-of-state opponents with 15 on out-of-state floors. Last week the Bucks won 6 of 10 at home and 11 of 20 on the road for an interstate record of 17 wins against 13 losses. That boosted Ohio to 118 victories against 107 losses against outsiders, with a scoring advantage of 17,148 to 16,610.

Ten Ohio Conference games, 6 each in the Mid-Ohio and Mid-American, and 2 in the Big Ten grace this week's slate. Marietta paces the 14-team Ohio loop with 7 in a row, the others having dropped at least 2, Findlay is out front in the Mid-Ohio with 6-0, and Toledo has a strangle-hold on the Mid-American laurels with 7-1, the others having been beaten 3 times or more.

College Squads Await Bids for NCAA Tourney

NEW YORK (AP)—College basketball's world series, the annual NCAA Tournament, gets under way exactly one month from today—and it looks like a replay of last year's meet.

More than half a dozen of the teams that began the scramble last year are almost certain bets to qualify again next month, with Indiana's defending champions leading the way.

The Hoosiers, heading toward their second straight Big Ten title with a 7-0 conference mark, play host tonight to Minnesota, a team they whipped last month in Minneapolis. It's the last chance for Minnesota (6-1), although Indiana also must whip Iowa (6-1) on Feb. 22.

Bob Leonard and Don Schlundt, the Hoosiers' one-two punch, sparked Indiana to a 79-74 victory over Michigan State Saturday night. The team was ranked third in the Associated Press poll last week.

Notre Dame, which bowed to Indiana in the NCAA quarter-finals last year, won its 12th game against only two setbacks by turning back De Paul 59-53 Saturday. The Irish, ranked seventh nationally, appear certain to be named one of the "at large" teams east of the Mississippi River.

Seattle, just as certain a choice for one of the Western "at large" berths for the second successive year, now boasts the longest winning streak among major colleges No. 22 was a 71-49 romp over Gonzaga. Seattle is ranked sixth.

Tenth-ranked Holy Cross should gain an Eastern "at large" berth, if the Crusaders decide on the NCAA again instead of the National Invitation Tournament. With a 16-1 mark, they can choose their tournament.

Kansas, which lost the NCAA final to Indiana last year on Leonard's foul shot, is tied with Colorado for the Big Seven lead. Louisiana State, a semifinalist in '53, is tied with Kentucky for the Southeastern Conference lead.

Idaho State, beaten in the first round last year, could be the first team to clinch a berth in the 1954 tournament. A two-game sweep over Colorado State this week will assure Idaho State the team's second successive Rocky Mountain Conference title.

Fordham (14-2) and Oklahoma City (12-4) have the records to gain "at large" berths again.

Trinity Baptist Clinches First Round Y Title

Trinity Baptist captured the first round championship of the YMCA Church Basketball League Saturday, winning its fifth game without a loss. he Church of the Brethren came very close to tossing the first round into a tie by giving the Trinity five a rough time right down to the wire.

The Brethren who haven't won a game in five outings came on strong in the final quarter after trailing throughout most of the game to scare Trinity before dropping the contest 46-44. After holding a 10-9 lead in the first frame, Trinity increased the edge to a 27-19 at half time and was in front 38-31 at the start of the final period. The Brethren rally in this period came within two points of knotting the count. Robbie Miller took scoring honors for the losers with 19 while Don Dutt paced Trinity with 10.

Epworth rolled to a 60-35 victory over Calvary and showed evidence of being a strong contendor for second round honors with the addition of Merle Daum and Dick Jones to its lineup. Jones had 18 and Daum 11 as the Epworth team took an early lead and was never headed. Specker and Smith were high for Calvary with 11 and 10 points.

Wesley Methodist finished off the first round with a four and one record by dropping Rural Salem 66-37 in the final game, Wesley also jumped away early to lead its opponents and never was pushed. Jim Ruth, Jim Seiter and Lon Earl lead the Wesley scoring attack with 19, 14, and 10 points while Gruber with 11 points was Salem's best point getter.

Howard Gilbert, chairman of the YMCA Basketball Committee, announced to-day that all games scheduled tonight have been postponed until Tuesday because of the opening games of the Marion County tournament. Games listed on the schedule will be played off at the same time Tuesday.

Tribe Signs Majeski

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians today announced the signing of rookie pitchers Dick Tomanek and Don Fracchia and veteran utility infielder Hank Majeski.

With training camp opening scheduled for two weeks from Wednesday at Tucson, Ariz., the Tribe now has 18 of 42 players under contract.

4 Games Slated

Marion County Basketball Tournament Opens Tonight

Morral and Prospect, co-champions of the Marion County cage loop, start their journeys down the road to the county tournament finals tonight in two of the four opening session games.

Action gets underway at 5:30 p.m. when Morral and Pleasant pry off the tournament lid.

Second game on tonight's program at 6:45 p.m. pits Meeker, which finished in a three-way deadlock for second-place honors, against Claridon, defending county tournament champs.

Prospect takes on Waldo, last year's county league winner, in the third game at 8 p.m. while LaRue, which placed second in the final county league standings, opposes New Bloomington in the final at 9:15 p.m.

In previous meetings of the clubs in county league action, Morral dumped Pleasant 71-28; Meeker edged Claridon 39-36; Prospect routed Waldo 62-44; and LaRue trimmed New Bloomington 49-47.

Caledonia, Green Camp and Martel will be sitting out the first session after drawing byes in the tournament drawings last Friday night.

Caledonia and Martel will see action in the second session Wednesday evening. Martel will meet the winner of tonight's Morral-Pleasant contest while Caledonia will oppose the winner of the Meeker-Claridon clash.

Green Camp appears in its first tourney action Friday. It will play the winner of the Prospect-Waldo contest tonight in the third session.

Morral is the tourney's top seeded team. In the tourney drawings last week, Prospect was seeded second, Meeker third and LaRue fourth.

Positions were decided by drawing by lot since Prospect and Morral both tied for the county league title with identical 9-1 marks and Claridon, LaRue and Meeker all came in next with 7-3 ratings. Waldo went 5-5 in the league while New Bloomington and Pleasant, both with 3-7 ratings, and Green Camp, 2-8, and Martel, 0-10, came in next.

Three tourney sessions this week—tonight, Wednesday and Friday—will be climaxed next week with sessions Feb. 16, 18 and 20. The tourney champ, runner-up and consolation winner here will advance into district play.

Irish Nip Aces in Final Five Seconds

Ballenger Goal Overcomes Deficit for 53-51 Victory

By JOHN SHORT

St. Mary managed to hold the lead only five seconds against Elm Valley Saturday night at the Coliseum. But it was a big five seconds—the last five in the game.

Elm Valley had held the lead from the starting whistle until Johnny Messenger batted a throw-in into the air and watched it fall through for two points with 47 seconds to go. That knotted the count at 51-51. Then with the Irish playing out the clock to bank everything on a payoff attempt, Jerry Ballenger drove around the middle down the right side of the keyhole and laid the ball in the hoop for the winning points with five seconds showing.

Ends Climb

The goal climaxed a long uphill fight by the Irish, who dropped behind the sharp-shooting Aces early. At the middle of the third period the Irish trailed by a bulging 37-25 count. Then shifting into a full court press, the St. Mary attack picked up. Pressing tactics by Messenger and Ballenger upset the Elm Valley passing and attack and the Irish began whittling the lead. Two goals by Jack O'Keeffe and three by Ballenger cut the deficit to 39-35 before the visitors added another score from the foul line. At the start of the final period the Irish still trailed 43-37.

That deficit and the loss of Roger Micheli and Larry Ryan on fouls dimmed the St. Mary hopes but Messenger and Ballenger continued their harrassing tactics and the score was 44-43 after goals by Don Shoemaker and Ballenger. John Humes kept popping in shots from the corner to keep his mates ahead of the surging Irish until Messenger's gift goal.

The Aces missed a chance to move ahead with four seconds to go when Ed Vanausdle missed a pair of charity throws. Mike Anderson grabbed the rebound and St. Mary began playing for the last chance at the goal. For 32 seconds the Irish held the ball before Ballenger drove around the Aces plugging the keyhole for the winner.

In addition to his game winner, Ballenger also led the St. Mary scorers. He sparked the attack with 17 points while Anderson finished with 10. O'Keeffe and Micheli each potted eight. Humes and Borden were high for the visitors with 13 each.

The Irish started the last period with a lowly 29 per cent average on their field goal tries. They had hit on 14 of 48 attempts. However, they potted seven of 13 during the last stanza to lift their game average to 36 per cent. Ballenger dumped in five of 11 attempts while O'Keeffe added four of five.

Reserves Win

The St. Mary reserves coasted to a 32-16 win in the preliminary. They built a 5-1 lead in the first period and led 11-3 at the half. Dick King led the way with 11 points. Dick Mounts was next with seven. The little Aces collected only two field goals. They were sparked by Henry and Stults each with six points.

The win gave the Irish second place in the Mid-Ohio League, with a mark of three wins and a single loss. Mt. Gilead, which whipped St. Mary in their league encounter, won the crown with a 4-0 mark. St. Mary avenged the loss in a later non-league meeting with Mt. Gilead.

In another preliminary, Eber Baker Junior High School edged St. Mary's junior high squad 29-25. The Irish led 6-5 at the quarter and 18-15 at the half before Baker came on to knot the count at 23-all at the start of the last stanza. Gary Sanders with seven points led the winners' attack. John Smith was high for St. Mary with 13.

The Irish resume action Tuesday night when they travel to Fredericktown for a non-league encounter with the Knox Countians.

Friday night St. Mary will play host to Johnstown at the Coliseum.

HAPPY GOLFER

ATLANTA (AP) — Many a golfer was thrown a club when things went wrong on the course. But T. C. Mann astounded his companions by tossing his five iron toward the green immediately after he had sunk a hole-in-one on the Bobby Jones Municipal course. He was so excited about making his first ace that he forgot himself and threw his club into the air.

Bantamweights Face Action in Television Bout

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—The long-dead bantamweight class gets a shot in the arm tonight with a North American championship bout at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway between champ Billy Peacock of Los Angeles and Nate Brooks of Cleveland.

The real world champ is Jimmy Carruthers of Australia so they are trying to stir up American interest with a North American crown. Peacock won this title last Aug. 17 by whipping Pappy Gault at Eastern Parkway. This is his first defense. He is a 12-5 favorite.

Brooks, 20, is a former Olympic champion. He will be making his first fight over six rounds in the 12-round match, to be seen on television (Du Mont) in some sections of the country.

Harry (Kid) Matthews of Seattle makes his first start since his defeat by Don Cockell when he boxes Jack Nelson of Salt Lake City, tomorrow at Spokane, Wash. Matthews is expected to knock out Nelson.

Jed Black, another Michigan State boy who is following the path broken by stablemate Chuck Davey, comes up to his most important test Wednesday in a bout with Chico Vejar at Chicago Stadium. (DBS-TV).

They are thumping the drums for Black, who has lost only one of 28 starts. Vejar, still in the Army, beat Pat Manzi, at Miami in his latest start.

Madison Square Garden features middleweights for the second week in succession with a Friday pairing of Joey Giambra of Buffalo, N. Y., and Italo Scortichini of Italy. (ABC radio and NBC-TV).

Bowling

Hi Miller's 220 and Paul Rice's 553 topped men bowlers in the Mr. & Mrs. League at Marion Recreation Sunday. Women were paced by Virginia Keck's 170-405. Jollys cracked 679-1850 for team honors.

Ladies Commercial League bowlers were led by Virginia Eby's 204-549. Mickey Carpenter challenged her with 194-519. V. Smith turned in a 5-7 split. Team honors went to Mel's Jewelers who smashed 791-2206.

A pair of 210 games, by Charles Gruber and Clarence Primmer and John Turner's 581 were tops in the Erie Railroad League. Turner had games of 200 and 205 in his high series. Scribner hit 205 and Jim Eckert 202 for other high scores. Erie No. 6 with 885 and Erie No. 7 with 2519 topped the teams.

Cooler League keglers were paced by Oscar Betz's 197-514 Team One with 857 and Team Eight 1th 2466 led the teams.

McCurdy, Haines Leave for Florida

Harold (Monk) McCurdy and Harley Haines left this morning for Tampa, Fla. with the racer Haines built in his auto body shop at 441 Wilson Ave.

McCurdy and Haines had hoped to leave last week, but illness in McCurdy's family caused the delay in departure.

Haines' son, Walter, who helped build the car, reported the two men are to arrive in the Florida city Thursday, after stopping over in Fitzgerald, Ga., to try out the streamlined racing car

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—Softness among selected steel tipped the stock market downward today.

Trading started fast with prices generally higher. But the pace soon sickened and many sections turned irregular.

Aircrafts were in good demand. But steels turned downward about noontime, signaling a change in market tone. Fractionally lower were Bethlehem, Republic and U. S. Steel.

On the rise were General Motors, Studebaker, International Harvester, National Distillers, Radio Corp., American Telephone, International Nickel, American Cyanamid, American Tobacco and New York Central.

Lower were Chrysler, Packard, Goodyear, Sears Roebuck, Du Pont, Dow Chemical, Westinghouse American Can and Southern Pacific.

Radio and Television

By John Crosby

The Savage Mountain

The highest I ever climbed was to the top of a twenty-six story apartment building during an elevator strike a good many years ago when I was in better condition than I am now. I interviewed an elderly lady whose supplies were running low and who was naturally anxious to know how long this nonsense was going to continue. A few days later, my city editor suggested I climb back up there to see how the old lady was getting on. When a good news story is involved, a courageous city editor never hesitates to risk life, limb and blood pressure, provided they are somebody else's.

J. CROSBY

SINCE THAT TIME most of my upward journeying has been by elevator and people who climb things, especially mountains, and especially voluntarily, continue to amaze me. But—let's face it—we are in a mountain-climbing age. The mountain climbers are all over television, telling their stories, their hardship and then answering—or trying to answer—that inevitable question: why do people climb mountains?

A more proper question might well be: why do people who don't climb mountains—me, for instance—like to watch people who do. There's no doubt but that the climbers and their deadly mountains exert a powerful fascination. Maurice Herzog, the Frenchman who conquered Annapurna (at the cost of all his fingers and toes) was on "Adventure" and must be given credit for delivering the finest prose on the thrill of climbing a mountain.

SIR EDMUND HILLARY, one of the two men to stand on the peak of Mount Everest, highest point in the world, was on "Oni bus" and was—to pass the credit around as generously as possible—the most charming mountain climber yet to be seen on television.

On the same Sunday, NBC-TV presented a full hour special program called "K-2—The Savage Mountain." K-2, which is hardly enough name for so majestic a peak, is the second highest mountain in the world (28,250 feet) and today enjoys the distinction of being the highest unclimbed mountain in the world. Last August a team of American climbers, headed by Dr. Charles D. Houston, made a stab at it on an expedition financed by the American Alpine Club with a little extra scratch from NBC to insure rights to the films.

Well, K-2 is still unclimbed—this group being stopped by howling blizzards which went on for ten days at 25,250 feet — but the failure made as enthralling a story, maybe a little bit more so as the successful climbs. The narration was done by the climbers themselves rather than by a professional smoothie and apart from occasional lapses into mock heroics ("The mountain seemed to be saying 'Turn back while you can.' "), it was very good.

THE MOTION PICTURES were fairly incredible, especially those taken at 25,000 feet in the screeching blizzard, the men slowed by altitude to the point where they resembled people in slow motion photography. This expedition was unusual in that the climbers scorned oxygen masks which were used by the Everest climbers when they got above 20,000 feet. The K-2 expedition members spent ten days above 25,000 feet without oxygen and Dr. Houston believes they could have stayed there for weeks without ill effects. Houston thinks oxygen masks can actually be dangerous because if anything goes wrong with the mask, the climber, who has not been acclimatized, could be prostrated or killed. This almost happened to Tenzing, Hillary's Sherpa companion, on the Everest climb.

THE ONLY BAD POINT on this show was the descent when an avalanche carried one climber, Art Gilkey, to his death. There were no movies taken of this part of the operation so all we saw was a picture of a tape-recording machine in which various members of the expedition told of Gilkey's death.

Incidentally, subsidizing of expeditions by television networks may become a habit. NBC is financing another one, an expedition to Australia in which Lowell Thomas Jr., son of the newscaster, will bring back movies of pygmy tribes and jungles and what have you.

BLACKBERRY REVIVAL

GENEVA, N. Y. (UP)—Hope for revival of blackberry growing has been noted in the development of two new varieties, "Bailey" and "Hedrick" by fruit breeders at the N. Y. State Experiment Station here. The new varieties, named after two world-famous Cornell University horticulturists, are high yielders with large berries that are easy to pick. Blackberry cultivation has declined almost to the vanishing point in recent years.

The first periscope used by the U. S. Navy was not built for a submarine. The ironclad monitor Osage utilized a periscope to discover Confederate cavalry which was taking cover behind the high banks of the Red River in Arkansas.

Bender To Open Rackets Probe Late This Month

CLEVELAND (AP)—Rep. George H. Bender says his House subcommittee plans to open hearings in Cleveland or Minneapolis late this month on reports of labor racketeering and improper practices.

The Cleveland congressman said hearings later would be held in New York.

Although the subcommittee has not received a $100,000 appropriation it is seeking, Bender said $21,000 from a last year's appropriation has been made available for preliminary moves.

Teenage Girls Held at Galion For Shoplifting

GALION — Special investigation by Capt. George Cook, head of the investigation and identification divison of the Galion police department, has uncovered a shoplifting ring of four girl juveniles in Galion.

Much of the merchandise stolen from stores in Galion and Bucyrus, worth over $200 has been recovered, Police Chief Morris Bowers said. Such items as earrings, bracelets, a man's wrist watch, hat, belt, gloves, lingerie, sweatercoat, nylon blouses, head scarfs, necklaces and billfolds, were turned over by the girls.

Police were first tipped off last week when Russell L. Post, partner in the National Mailing Service here, reported a number of articles missing from the store after four young girls had been there.

Ages of the girls range from 14 years to 20. Two girls, 14, are students in junior high school here. The oldest girl was placed on a year's probation at a hearing Saturday morning before Mayor Francis C. Schalip. She was charged with shoplifting. The three younger girls will be turned over to the Crawford County juvenile court.

The girls admitted the theft in Galion stores, and also from a Bucyrus dime store and a dry goods store in that city. They had not sold the stolen goods, but had either kept it or given it to friends.

FACES MURDER CHARGE

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—James E. Vaughters, 18-year-old Wheelersburg shoe factory worker, will be charged wit first degree murder today in the death of Luther Cunningham, middle-aged pool room operator, Scioto County Sheriff Burl Justice said. The sheriff said Vaughters admitted shooting Cunningham in his Wheelersburg pool room, but claimed it was an accident. Vaughters claimed a rifle he was trying to sell to Cunningham discharged accidentally. The sheriff accused the youth of stealing $52 from Cunningham.

HVASTA HOME TO A HUG. John Hvasta, back home to freedom after a five-year interment and fugitive episode in Red-ruled Czechoslovakia, is greeted with a hug by his mother, Mrs. Michael Hvasta, on his arrival at Idlewild airport, New York. Hvasta's family, from Hillside, N. J., was on hand to greet the youth, who flew back to the United States. He declined to give details on his imprisonment in Czechoslovakia on espionage charges and his subsequent escape to the asylum of the U. S. embassy in Prague.

Philatelic Society Hears Talk on Rare American Stamps

Clarence Miller of the Columbus Philatelic Club was guest speaker at a meeting of the Harding Philatelic Society recently at the YMCA. Twenty-two members and guests were present.

Mr. Miller's talk concerned the early United States stamps and various other rare stamps. He displayed many stamps.

Among those he had on display were carrier stamps, issued by private enterprise and later government issues; postmaster provisionals on envelopes, all of which were issued prior to 1847 when the first stamps were issued by our government for general use; early bank notes from which the early stamp designs were taken; a collection of five different issues of postal currency printed during Civil Way days when coins were hard to get with which to buy stamps; a group of confederate stamps both private and government issues, and the confederate bank notes from which the pictures were taken.

The speaker concluded his stamp discussion by showing departmental stamps which were used by each department of government before the use of the present franking privilege.

A guest was Lincoln A. Russell of Columbus.

The next meeting of the Marion Society will be Feb. 18 at 8 p.m. at the Y.

Unemployment Benefits Based On Wages Earned, Dependents

"How much can I get?" This is one of the questions most frequently voiced by unemployed residents who visit the local office of the Ohio State Employment Service to apply for unemployment benefits.

The local claims-taking agency promptly counters with "How long did you work and how much did you earn?"

Answers are found in a composite work history, supplied on request by employers of the claimant during the past 15 months. As a result of this study, the claims-taking agency will know (1) if the claimant will actually receive any application; (2) how much he should receive each week (if otherwise eligible); (3) if the reason for leaving his most recent employment is acceptable under the law; and (4) how much of his wages can be used as a basis for the payment of benefits.

According to Fred B. Scherff, manager of the Marion area offices, the question "How much can I get?" should be phrased "How much may I get?" because at this stage of the game, the BUC is ready to speak only in terms of potential entitlement. Whether the claimant willactually receive any benefits or how much depends upon his ability to meet the requirements of the law each time he certifies to a claim for a week of unemployment.

"In Ohio, the weekly benefit amount which may be payable to the claimant ranges from $10 to $30. The exact amount depends upon the total gross wages earned by the claimant in the highest-paid calendar quarter of his base period (four completed calendar quarters in the preceding 15 months).

"In addition, the claimant may receive a dependency allowance of $2.50 for a maximum of 26 weeks if he has one dependent child under 18; the maximum allowance of $5 if he has two or more dependent children.

"As to 'How long can I get it?' the answer is found in the law which says the most any claimant may receive is 26 times his weekly benefit amount. This is another way of saying that the claimant may receive his weekly benefit check for as many as 26 weeks—provided he remains unemployed through sheer inability to find work and is able to meet all other requirements. In no case, however, may the total benefits exceed one-half the wages earned in the base period."

The next article will deal with the question "How soon?" It will discuss the claimant's "time-table" as outlined in the Unemployment Compensation Act, and show why a minimum of four weeks is required to deliver the first benefit check.

The U.S. infant mortality rate of 28 per 1,000 live births in 1953 was 30 per cent less than the rate 10 years previous and half that of 20 years previous.

A LONG DELAYED TRIBUTE TO OUR DOCTORS

In the February issue of Fortune Magazine is an article that every man and woman should read. It's entitled, "The M. D.'s are off their pedestal." While we now have the finest hospital and medical research people in the world, practically every doctor is working overtime. One hundred years ago the average life span was 29 years. Today it is up around 67 years. Our hats are off to the Medical Profession and the tens of thousands of nurses who also do a whale of a job.

It took 12 years to design and mount the 105-foot Colossus of Rhodes, one of the original seven wonders of the world. Toppled by an earthquake which destroyed the city of Rhodes in 222 B.C., the great statue lay on the ground for over 900 years. It was finally broken up in the 7th century A.D. and the metal was carried to Syria where it was put up for auction.

Vary From CCC to Coffee

Farm Troubles in Congress' Spotlight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farm troubles of all sorts bobbed into the congressional spotlight, some of them commanding as much attention abroad as at home.

An unofficial "no business this week" sign hung over other major legislation in both House and Senate—many Republicans were out of town for Lincoln Day speechmaking.

Coffee—Senators advanced on two fronts in the clamor over coffee price boosts: an investigating Banking subcommittee called to the witness stand five coffee trade leaders from New York City, and Chairman Aiken (R-Vt) asked quick Senate passage of a bill okayed by his Agriculture Committee to allow federal monitoring of trade in coffee futures. Coffee-producing Latin Americans have protested against any boycott by U.S. consumers.

Wetbacks—CIO President Walter Reuther outlined to the House Agriculture Committee his union's stand against hiring Mexicans to work on American farms without an agreement with Mexico. That's a hot issue in Mexico, whose government has been trying to clamp down on the flow of Mexican farm labor to this country since a U.S.-Mexican agreement ended last month.

CCC—Quick House approval was foreseen for a compromise 681-million-dollar measure to bolster the Commodity Credit Corp., operator of the farm price support program. But a skirmish shaped up in the Senate, where Sen. Anderson (D-NM) said the CCC's own figures show it's not out of money.

Un-American—In an annual report to Congress, the House Un-American Activities Committee said evidence indicated there are a few Communists or sympathizers among clergymen and educators, but it declared the great majority of Americans in those fields are loyal.

Professor Studying Names Discovers Popularity Varies

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP)—Mary, Helen, Elizabeth, Margaret and Alice have been the most popular names at Smith College, Prof.-emeritus F. Warren Wright reported today after a survey of 3,664 students' names.

Wright checked the names of his own 2,302 students in the classes of 1914 through 1956 and supplemented them with names from earlier classes.

Listing 573 first names, ranging from Abby and Adrienne to Zora and Zuline, Prof. Wright found that some once-popular names have "almost totally disappeared"—like Ethel, Bertha, Charlotte, Clara and Emma.

In 1953 infant mortality in the United States reached a new low of 28 per 1,000 live births.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON IN HOLLAND. Hollanders, out for a Sunday afternoon of sports, get plenty of cooperation from the weatherman whose low temperatures provided thick ice to cover the waterways near Leyden, Holland. Hundreds of skaters competed over frozen canals and rivers in the traditional "windmill race," which derives its name from the windmills which border the waterways. Estimated death toll elsewhere in northern Europe as a result of subfreezing temperatures ranged as high as 300.

Heat Wave Boosts Mercury to 88 for San Diego Record

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Hot, high wind pushed the thermometer to a record 88 in San Diego yesterday in a gutsy blow that toppled scores of trees—one on the home of tennis Queen Maureen Connolly.

There was also a light earthquake.

The tree damaged the roof of the Connolly home. Miss Connolly was away playing tennis.

Other objects tossed about by the gusts included television antennae, street signs, a chicken house and an automobile that was rolled from its parking place over a 30-foot embankment.

City lifeguards estimated 10,000 people at beaches.

Los Angeles also had a record 88-degree temperature.

Hughes Offers $23½ Million In RKO Deal

Producer, Industrial Leader Seeks To Buy Out Entire Film Firm

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Howard Hughes, holder of the controlling interest in RKO Pictures Corp., has announced an offer to buy out the rest of the stockholders for 23½ million dollars.

In a letter to the corporation yesterday, he said the sum represents $6 a share for all stock except his. The stock closed Friday on the New York Stock Exchange at $2.87.

The film producer, also an industrialist and plane builder, offered to purchase all assets of RKO Pictures for $23,489,478 in cash. There are 3,914,913 shares of RKO stock outstanding. Hughes' 1,262,120 shares are exempt from the offer.

Hughes said the offer was subject to acceptance by a duly constituted RKO officer by Feb. 15, and approval by a majority of the RKO stockholders, other than himself, by March 30. The payments would be made during the 60-day period following adoption by the purchase-offer resolution.

"I have been sued by certain of the stockholders and accused of responsibility for losses to the corporation," Hughes' letter stated, adding that he desires all stockholders to receive more for their shares than they were worth when he bought into the company.

Noted Organist, 39, Ohio Native, Dies in Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP)—Funeral services will be held here tomorrow for Richard V. Ross, widely known organist who died unexpectedly yesterday shortly before he was to direct the choir at Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Ross, 39-year-old head of the organ and sacred music department at the Peabody Conservatory of Music, was fatally stricken at his home while dressing for church.

He was believed to have suffered a heart attack.

Ross, who grew up in Xenia, Ohio, began playing the piano at the age of 6 and was regarded as a child prodigy when he was 10.

Keeping in Touch, Man Arrested for Begging Declares

BALTIMORE (AP)—Walter Hallett, 43-year-old seaman charged with begging in the streets, told Magistrate William F. Laukaitis yesterday he was "just keeping in practice in case of a depression."

Laukaitis dismissed the charge after Hallett proved visible means of support. He urged the seaman to "just stay in the habit of working."

"Besides," said the Republican magistrate, "a man that happens to be president just said the other day that all this depression talk is untrue."

Churchmen Gathering For Cincinnati Meeting

CINCINNATI (AP) — The vanguard of 1,600 ministers and Christian lay leaders arrived today to analyze past battles and lay new plans in the field of Christian education.

More than 50 speeches and seminars will be heard on the theme "Christ Our Unity, teaching Our Missions" at the annual meeting of the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A.

Only the Protestant Committee on Scouting will meet today. But the number of section meetings and controversial topics increase in tempo until the sessions end Saturday.

DRIVERS FINED AT GALION

GALION — Willis Blackburn, 54, of Galion paid a fine of $25 and costs when given a hearing on a charge of reckless driving before Mayor Francis C. Schalip Friday. Blackburn was involved in an accident when his automobile struck a parked car in front of the George W. Bryan residence. A fine of $15 and costs was paid by Burrell Dale Hollister, 22, of Mansfield, when he appeared Saturday. Hollister was charged with reckless operation of his automobile. His car struck the bride on N. State Rd. near the Harding Way West intersection Saturday.

Mobile, Alabama, says the National Geographic Society, has lived under six flags since its founding in 1702; French, British, Spanish, United States, Republic of Alabama, and Confederate.

Electric Appliance May Affect Video

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UP) — The harmless-looking butter conditioner in your refrigerator is just one of many things that can make your television reception bad, according to Thomas Bailey, supervisor of radio communications and interference investigations for the Wisconsin Electric Power Co.

Other causes of interference listed by Bailey include old tungsten filament lamp bulbs still in use in out-of-the-way places around the house, new - type chime transformers in doors, electric fly exterminators, motorized sewing machines, old antenna installations, and built-in antennas unless within a stone's throw of a station's transmitters.

"Virtually all of these odd causes of television interference are not realized by television viewers," Bailey said. "They do, however, disrupt television for a block around a neighborhood. Old antenna installations and lead - in wires that have been buffeted by the weather are hardly ever suspected by the public. Neither are built-in antennas."

Oddly enough, the two worst sources of radio inferference—the heating pad and neon signs—don't seem to cause TV hrouble, Bailey said.

New World Record Set For Skinning Muskrats

CAMBRIDGE, Md. (AP)—A Dorchester County man, Russell Insley, claims the new world record for skinning muskrats. He skinned three in 1 minute 37.7 seconds to win the championship of the Cambridge Outdoor Show.

Contest Chairman M. Baker Robbins said Insley's time eclipsed the old record by two seconds.

Rhodes Blasts Lausche, Says Funds Wasted

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—James A. Rhodes, Republican candidate for governor of Ohio, today charged tax money was wasted at the Cleveland State Receiving Hospital in 1949 and 1952.

Welfare Director Henry J. Robison, an appointee of Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche, admitted there had been "unsatisfactory administration" at the hospital, but said it was promptly corrected as soon as it was discovered by replacement of the superintendent and business manager.

Rhodes, now state auditor, will oppose Lausche for the governorship in the November election. Both are unopposed in the May primary.

In a prepared statement Rhodes said a recent audit of the Cleveland hospital showed these items:

1. Purchase of 295 storm windows in 1949. "A visit by the examiners on Jan. 20, 1954, found that a large number of these storm windows were stored in the sub-basement . . ." He said the situation arose because "the management was willing to expend between $24,000 and $25,000 for window screens but was unwilling to spend $30 for a ladder to . . . install the windows."

2. Purchase of $60,000 worth of new laundry equipment in May 1952, which Rhodes charged is not yet in operation. He said the state spends "upwards of $40,000 a year for laundry service even though the hospital has well equipped facilities."

3. Purchase of 60 sets of door locks for $1,800 in 1949, none of them installed.

The Ntional Geographic Society estimates that Berlin was 40 per cent. destroyed during World War II.

Stop Those Horrid Lies

Your Skin is Telling About Your Age

Premature wrinkles around your eyes are often caused by skin dryness. Skin dryness is caused by your skin's inability to make enough lubricating cholesterols and esters. Penetrating Lanolin Plus Liquid used nightly as a cleanser—a few extra drops gently massaged into your skin before retiring—a few more drops used daily as a powder base constantly give your skin an abundance of cholesterols and esters. Result: dry skin is overcome—premature dry-skin wrinkles quickly fade, giving you a surprisingly younger look. Get your Lanolin Plus Liquid today. Use it tonight. Actually SEE a difference tomorrow morning. All this for but one dollar, plus tax.

2 Midwestern States Suffer From Drought

Crop Outlook Glum In Missouri, Kansas As Water Disappears

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Many communities in Missouri and Kansas, the states wracked only three years ago by devastating floods, are faced with a very different crisis today; they're drying up.

A merciless drought that lasted through the summer still shows no sign of abating. It's no longer just the preoccupation of worried farmers, but has moved, quietly, into the cities and towns.

The water shortage varies in acuteness, depending on locality, but there are communities which have little over a month's supply left.

At least one, in fact, has run dry—Olathe, Kan., 20 miles southwest of Kansas City. The city's supply is due to be depleted today, with the level of the reservoir dropping below the intake pipe. Trucks will haul water from a nearby lake while this source holds out, then arrangements are to be made for hauling it from Kansas City.

Dr. Warren A. Kramer, chief of water supplies for the Missouri Health Division, said many towns already have reached the crisis stage, and there's no immediate relief in sight.

For Kansas, too, the outlook is glum. A. D. Robb of the U.S. Weather Bureau in Topeka, Kan., described the general situation as "serious," explaining: "Good, general rains would be the only solution. But our long-range forecast doesn't indicate them."

Water for car washing and other nonessential use has been banned in some areas.

In Paola, Kan., pastors are offering prayers for rain at Sunday services. Daily prayers for rain are being said at Ursuline College.

Meantime, the town's water rate has doubled, and officials say another hike is inevitable if Paola—as is likely—will be forced to import water soon from nearby Kansas City.

Big 1,000-gallon water trucks are hauling supplies to farm lands and thirsty cities throughout northern and central Missouri and eastern Kansas.

COW IN THE WELL. Struggling valiantly to get out of her overnight prison is one of the cows in the Wilbur Dierker farm near Warrensburg, Ill. She didn't make it this trip, but as soon as Dierker broke out some more of the concrete block siding on the former well pit, out she came. The cow fell through a two-foot square opening in the top of the well pit sometime last night. The cow was apparently unharmed by her experience, though, Pepper, the family dog, seems concerned for her welfare. The hole she fell through is partly visible at left.

McMillen's Safety Record Improves, Employes Learn

Another in a series of dinner meetings to exchange ideas between employes of the various departments and the management was held by the McMillen Feed Mills Thursday night at the Shangri-La Restaurant. A group of 24 employes was present.

Robert W. Fay, plant manager, served as moderator for discussion. It was learned the plant safety record for 1953 showed there were four lost time accidents during the year, giving McMillen the best safety year in the past five years. At present, the plant has worked 140 days without a lost time accident.

It was learned that company business has been maintained and shows a slight increase over that of a year ago. The increased business has caused an increase in the number of employes on the second shift.

Robert Miller, manager of the Marion Grain and Supply Co., was present and stated that the Marion plant had the best customer service record of any of the five McMillen Feed Mill plants.

Those present included Jack Brown, Marion Hartley, Richard Hupp, Lester Gates and Gail Laughrey of the Feed Mill; Odis Pelphrey, Richard Lee and Paul Wintgens of the elevator; Lester Roberts of the boiler-service department; Albert Threlfall and Tony Fix of the M&R department; Jay Alton, Donald Rupp and James Berkshire of the solvent department; Charles Carpenter, Richard W. Thomas, Wilbur Wills, Miss Stella Bascos, Miss Ellen Ault, Searle Munson, R. W. Fay, Tim Wyant, office force; and Robert Miller of the Marion Grain & Supply, and Andy Roberts, a Master Mix salesman.

Miss Ault, Richard Thomas and Charles Carpenter have the longest service records of the McMillen plant.

Ex-Mayor of Kent, Patrolman Named In $10,000 Action

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP) — Former Mayor Robert L. Garrett and Patrolman Tony Grecco, both of nearby Kent, face a $10,000 false arrest suit today in Common Pleas Court.

Robert L. Kibler, 28, of Alliance, who filed the action Friday, charged he was arrested and held incommunicado 14 hours in Kent City Jail last October in connection with a street attack on a young woman. Another man subsequently was arrested in Youngstown.

Kibler said he was arrested because the woman incorrectly reported his license number to police, who came to his home accompanied by Garrett, then Kent mayor. Kibler lives with his wife and three children.

Husband of Treasurer Recovering From Stroke

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Roy F. Priest, 70-year-old husband of U.S. Treasurer Ivy Baker Priest, is recuperating in Salt Lake City from a mild stroke suffered Tuesday at Soda Springs, Idaho.

The Priests arrived from Soda Springs yesterday. Relatives said they tentatively plan to remain in Utah for two or three weeks before going on to Washington.

Mrs. Priest flew from Washington last week to be with her husband. He was released from the hospital yesterday.

Senator's Son Charged With Drunken Driving

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—Calvin Dworshak, 27, son of Idaho Republican Sen. Henry Dworshak, appears in police court today to answer a complaint charging him with drunken driving.

The complaint was signed by policemen Milton Friedley and Richard L. Deal late Saturday. The officers said they arrested Dworshak after a chase which began when they saw the attorney's car speeding through downtown Boise.

Roosevelt Suit Hearing Faces 6-Month Delay

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—The separate maintenance suit against James Roosevelt, in which his wife accuses him of adultery with 12 women won't go to trial for six or eight months, a judge said Saturday.

A crowded calendar will delay the case, said Superior Judge Kurtz Kauffman who recessed a pre-trial hearing Friday after a lawyer tried to question Roosevelt about one of the women

Kauffman ruled such questions will be proper only when Mrs Romelle Schneider Roosevelt's suit for $3 500 monthly support actually is tried

Details Recited

Intimate details of Roosevelt's complex financial affairs and his family's lavish standard of life were recited in the day long court session Opposing counsel will delve further into these matters when the temporary support hearing is resumed Feb 15

Mrs Roosevelt's complaint names three women as correspondents and incorporates a letter signed by Roosevelt in which he admits infidelities with nine other women Since her suit was filed Roosevelt has denied misconduct with any of the 12

The question about one of the correspondents Gladys Irene Owens, came just after Roosevelt had related from the witness stand that he went to Mexico last Dec 22 and returned early in January, on a trip partly for business and partly for pleasure

"Were you accompanied by anyone on this trip" asked Arthur Schifferman, one of Mrs. Roosevelt s lawyers

Objections Sustained

The court sustained an objection by Samuel Picone, Roosevelt's counsel

"Were you accompanied by Gladys Irene Owens' " persisted Schifferman

The day-long hearing, during which Roosevelt glared at his wife and she on occasion burst into tears, brought testimony ranging from the price of her dresses to Roosevelt s assertion that he built up a deficit of $120 000 in four and a half years Some of the highlights

Mrs Roosevelt said her husband sold, for one dollar, his one-fourth share in business interests worth four million The sale, she said, took place one week after he asked her for a divorce

' Mr Roosevelt s financial picture began to change after he said he wanted a divorce she remarked

Roosevelt an insurance man referred to the business interests sold for one dollar as worthless, and observed

"I want to leave some of my money, if I ever have any left now, to my children I guess I'm getting poorer by the minute '

Introduced in evidence was a statement showing Roosevelt's receipts from Jan 1 1948 to July 31, 1952, were $217,034 while his expenditures were $338,684 36

Mrs. Roosevelt said her estimate of monthly needs was based on "the manner in which we have lived for the past 12 years " In that period, she said, her dresses cost $300 apiece, she and Roosevelt often dined out at $20 for the two of them they occupied $80 a day hotel suites when they traveled. Household expenses, she said, included $465 monthly for servants and $350 for food

Roosevelt said his monthly expenses included $100 for clothing $15 for taxis, $509 for insurance, $409 payments on a $100 000 loan from his mother, $135 for rent and $100 for food His net income he said is $2 425 57 a month plus $100 semi-annually in fees from the estate of his father, the late President Franklin D Roosevelt

About the $100,000 note he gave his mother Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, he said

' I won t receive my inheritance during her lifetime Normally I couldn t repay her until I got my inheritance "

He said the note was protected by a $100 000 insurance policy the premium on which is $1 200 annually paid by his Massachusetts firm of Roosevelt and Sargent

Chief Believes All Pin Ball Machines Gambling Devices

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP)—The chairman of the state liquor board believes all pin ball machines are gambling devices, but so far the board has banned only the 'bingo type machine from liquor permit places

Board Chairman Frank M Krebs of Dayton told a reporter We've been finding all pinball machines of all types brought before us in the past year . . . . to be gambling devices We can t stop the machines from being licensed but we can prevent them from being in permit premises '

But Edward J Allen chief of the enforcement division, said he had received no order against all pinball machines—only against the 'bingo' type He described the bingo' type as those which change odds on possible replays by insertion of more coins.

Some city officials have claimed they will lose revenue if the liquor department bans pin ball machines Some cities collect fees for licensing the machines Cincinnati nets almost $20 000 a year from such licenses

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to stop bleeding—without surgery

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations

Pain was relieved promptly And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months'

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

Now this new healing substance is offered in ointment form for hemorrhoids under the name Preparation H ® The price is only 98¢ a tube including an applicator The name to ask for is Preparation H—at all drug stores. And remember—if not entirely satisfied—your money will be refunded promptly ®Trade Mark.

As Lincoln Would Say

This is the week when orators tell us what Abraham Lincoln would say about the butter subsidy, the Big Four meeting in Berlin and the Bricker amendment if he were still with us.

Even Democrats will quote Lincoln this week. Ohio's Sen. Burke was telling a meeting of Democratic ladies in Washington the other day what Lincoln would say and would not say about a wide variety of things.

In justice to a man whose greatness was not recognized until after he had been assassinated by one of a number of people who despised his views on the issues of his day, one characteristic of Lincoln's behavior should be remembered.

He was the least pretentious man who ever filled the presidency. He laid no claim to omniscience. His sense of humor was as irrepressible a his sense of responsibility to the federal union whose preservation was his major goal.

Even his best friends criticized him for his unorthodox points of view.

Nothing could be more absurd than to quote his views out of context. If he were a contemporary, his comments would be as unpredictable as they were when he was in the presidency.

But there was contained in them as unorthodox as they might be, a quality which would serve Americans well in these times.

The quality has been referred to recently by two prominent men. President Eisenhower said in a press conference last Wednesday that big talk never was the thing that made other people respect your strength. He said that a calm going about of one's own business was more impressive. In World War II, he recalled, he never boasted in advance how big and strong his army was; he just went ahead with preparations for a campaign and when everything was ready he set it in motion.

The President's plea for poise was made in connection with Defense Secretary Wilson's recent suggestion that atom - bomb - rattling was being overdone.

Sen. Fulbright of Arkansas had talked about another kind of poise the preceding day. He was referring to security for popular government.

"The Founding Fathers pursued rationality in their acts and in their debates," he said. "They believed that our domestic society presupposes the code of the gentleman. It does not expect saintly conduct of men. It does, however, expect that they should conduct themselves with a decent respect to the opinions of mankind.

"When they do not do so, when public men indulge themselves in abuse, when they deny others a fair trial, when they resort to innuendo and insinuation, to libel, scandal and suspicion, then our democratic society is outraged and democracy is baffled. It has no apparatus to deal with the boor, the liar, the lout and the anti-democrat in general."

No one knows what Abraham Lincoln would say if he were alive. But if the orators who will be speaking about him the next few days will remember what kind of a man he was and why his greatness survived the loud - mouthed and unscrupulous critics who tried to destroy him, they will have done the best possible job of honoring the President who most nearly embodied the American way of life.

No Municipal Isolation

An incident in Findlay, Ohio, a few days ago wrapped up a moral about the growth of American cities outside their municipal limits.

A member of the Findlay council, annoyed because "outsiders" were using city water and sewage facilities, had proposed that they be denied the use of these utilities, on the supposition they would then be forced to move into the municipality. After a week's consideration, however, better judgment prevailed and the proposal was tabled.

No city can live in isolation, however much it may resent the development of suburban neighborhoods. If these neighborhoods are "leeches," as the Findlay councilman charged, they also are just as truly residents of the cities as though they lived inside certain arbitrary boundaries which have been outgrown.

There are no "outsiders." The suburbanites are part of the cities.

They help to create the wealth which keeps the cities going, and they support the cities' service enterprises with their patronage. In Bureau of Census reports, they are listed as part of the urban population of the area in which the municipality is the central organization.

In the not-too-distant future, many American "cities" will be composed of the original municipality surrounded by a vastly larger area with a much larger population. This will be the real city. The absurdity of municipal isolation then will have become obvious. A city will be in law and in economic management what it already is in fact — the whole area of contiguous population bearing an urban indentification.

Public Housing Loses Appeal for Average Man

It was rather surprising, in view of the President's often expressed dislike for socialism in all forms and, what is more important, because he is engaged in a desperate struggle to cut the cost of government and lower taxes, that his proposals for housing should involve further debt and more paternalism.

One explanation of this inconsistency may be the President's experience at Columbia University.

That institution for more than half a century has been located on the east side of the Hudson River, in a region called Morningside Heights. Its trustees for many years have been charged with lack of foresight because they failed signally to acquire sufficient acreage not only for the expansion of the institution itself but for adequate protection against the growth of slum areas cheek by jowl with ivied halls.

THE RESULT is that two of the minority groups to which the President referred in his message, Negroes from Harlem and immigrants from Puerto Rico, have in the past few years moved into close proximity on three sides of the institution.

Like so many institutions, this one would not be averse to having the federal government move in to rescue the university from the situation created by the improvidence of its trustees. This, despite the fact that there are represented on the present board of trustees financial institutions with sufficient means to buy many times the acreage to prevent the area from disintegrating into slums.

I do not suggest that the university's needs are involved in the present presidential program. I simply say that presidents, like other men, argue from the small island of what they know out into the great sea of what they don't know.

THE BARE FACTS that concern taxpayers everywhere, from Presque Isle to San Diego, are these.

Read and buy if you will, but don't say you were not warned.

1. The President is asking Congress to join him in a policy which frankly accepts the responsibility of the federal government to see that slum conditions are eliminated and that declining neighborhoods be rehabilitated.

2. The President is asking that the federal government pledge itself to increase its building of tax-free and government owned and operated units from the present rate of 20,000 a year to 35,000 This is to involve a total commitment now of 140,000 units.

3. This will cost, over the whole period, 2 billion dollars, and probably the loss of revenue and cost of services not paid for by token remittances in lieu of taxes will cost local governments about a billion more dollars.

4. The federal government becomes a master planner and provides some millions to enable cities and metropolitan communities to plan themselves.

5. The government, through the FHA, has a contingent liability of approximately 17 billion dollars, of which it has about 2 per cent in reserves. It is proposed to increase that liability and to authorize borrowing from the Treasury if there is difficulty in selling the debentures involved.

SINCE EISENHOWER is so rapidly learning the practical ways of politics, some of his advisers should tell him that public housing has lost its glamor with the man in the street.

That was abundantly shown in the Los Angeles election last May. I also have found it to be true in New York City. Those who rent are awakening to the fact that indirectly but inexorably the cost of subsidizing the rent of some is visited in taxes on the landlord, and he in turn passes it on to the tenant.

The people are again ahead of their government.

The President's proposals are thus not only doubtful economics but doubtful politics, too.

Colder and Wetter

By Thomas R. Henry

The last great glaciation of North America — the forming of the great glaciers — took place about 11,000 years ago. Since then the progress of deglaciation has been highly irregular. It reached its climax of warmth and dryness about 5,000 years ago. Since then conditions have become appreciably colder and wetter.

This is the picture presented by Dr. Richard F. Flint, professor of geology at Yale, in the annual report of the Smithsonian Institution.

Some of the glaciers in the western United States probably disappeared completely during the warm period and have been reborn since then, Flint says in his report on the successive ice sheet formations over the Arctic regions of this continent.

The last ice age, he says, now is believed to have continued roughly for 1,000,000 years, with a group of four glacial and three interglacial ages. The glacial periods are believed to have been much briefer than those which were relatively free of ice.

Temperature fluctuations between the ice stages and the interglacial periods apparently were much less than generally has been assumed. It was roughly 15 degrees Fahrenheit colder than now, on the average, during the glacial periods and about four degrees warmed in the interglacial.

The cause of these repeated fluctuations appears to have been twofold, Flint says. "The first factor," he explains, "was a conspicuous worldwide elevation of lands in general, and of many mountain ranges in particular, during the epoch immediately preceding the Pleistocene (the last ice age) and continuing into the epoch itself. This elevation in itself reduced surface temperatures in several ways, although alone it cannot explain the temperature fluctuation. The second factor is an assumed fluctuation in the radiant energy emitted by the sun. Small present - day fluctuations are currently observed, but the larger fluctuations necessary to form glaciers on the highlands must be assumed. These two factors constitute a reasonable and probable explanation of the glacial and interglacial ages, though the second factor is not at present capable of proof."

There is little doubt, he says, that at times during the Pleistocene Era there was a land bridge between North America and Asia over which came animals and probably man himself.

"Bering Strait," he says, "is both shallow and narorw. It could have become land at one or more times as a result of a moderate lowering of sea level, such as is known to have occurred during each glacial age when water was absorbed from the sea to build the great terrestrial glaciers. A slight warping of the earth's crust in the Alaska - Siberia region could also have converted this shallow strait into land."

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

Glowing words described the Marion Academy which opened its doors on Monday, Dec. 21, 1840 under the direction of John J. Williams. A catalogue related that "This institution is located in the center of a beautiful plain containing about seven acres of ground, directly west of the town of Marion. The building consists of a spacious and elegant brick edifice, with sufficient accommodations for 200 students. There is a good philosophical and chemical apparatus connected with the academy, sufficiently extensive for all practical purposes. The town of Marion is, probably, not surpassed by any in the state of Ohio for health and morality, and it is confidently believed that the conveniences for study and improvement are not excelled by any similar institution." After a few years it was found that financially, the Academy was a failure.

Horse Feathers

New Orleans Likes Clean Government

By Raymond Moley

NEW ORLEANS

Good government seems to be a habit in New Orleans.

It was certainly not always so—for a few years ago this municipality was in the hands of as sorry a flock of incompetent and doubtful characters as any city in the country has ever failed to boast about. That crowd operated on a fairly dark background of state government, for the Huey Long machine was dominant.

Suddenly, and apparently with few premonitory symptoms, the city in 1946 aroused itself. It voted into office a remarkably attractive but quite inexperienced young man, De Lesups Morrison—now known far and wide as Chep.

I well remember a visit to the city shortly after that miracle. People were rubbing their eyes at their sudden discovery of virtue. And I suspect that not the least surprised man in the city was young Chep himself.

OF COURSE, the old - timers in politics offered the cynical remark that this was just one of those things in politics.

They said that after this bath the old grime would accumulate and that Chep would go the way of most reformers in the past. The old machine lies down and, as the old ballad has it, "bleeds a while" and then gets up and fights again.

Morrison seemed to be terribly in earnest and anxious to fulfill what seemed to be impossible expectations. But how, reasoned the political cognoscenti, could such an untrained person avoid the innumerable pitfalls that were lying in wait in a city which was large, cosmopolitan, and distinguished for somewhat unpuritanical romance?

The wiseacres were unaware of two things. One was that, despite the love of New Orleans for play, its people were much like the people of any other American city.

They had a keen pride in their city, and after a good draught of virtuous government they decided it was good for their pride as well as their purses.

The other surprise was in the capacity that lay beneath the surface of Chep Morrison. He realized almost at once a somber fact that so many reformers miss—that one-man shows in politics play to short runs. In the long run it is organization that counts.

Chep took out insurance against the cooling off of an aroused electorate by building up a strong, clean, and worldly wise organization known as the Crescent City Democratic Association. He did this with deliberation and skill which had distinguished him as a youthful colonel in the Second World War.

As one of his assistants put it, "Chep does things in a military style. He frequently uses terms such as 'chain of command,' 'standard operating procedure,' and 'completed staff action.'"

Morrison dwells on easy terms with his ward and precinct leaders and has the assurance of their loyalty. His leaders in the CCDA have been of high calibre, and his appointments in the city administration have been excellent.

In 1950, at the age of 38, Morrison was re-elected by the largest majority in the city's history.

IN THE PRESENT election, his third, he had nine opponents but received a big majority overall.

In all three elections his manager has been Scott Wilson, who conducts a public relations firm. Morrison's contacts with the press and the public are looked after by a shrewd manager of opinion, Dave McGuire.

It is quite understandable that much speculation should be abroad concerning Morrison's future. No doubt, it can be bright if he chooses to continue in public life.

There are suggestions about his contesting Russell Long's seat in the United States Senate and about his availability for the vice-presidential nomination in 1956. A governorship is also a possibility. There are spots in the business world where his unusual talents might find rich rewards.

Whatever his future may be, he already has established the unusual political phenomenon of a reformer who also is capable of creating an organization.

Peter and the Home Folks

By TRUMAN TWILL

A New Jersey apprentice congressman, Peter Frelinghuysen Jr., isn't the first to pull his constituents' legs with soapy promise to vote exactly the way they want him to vote. But when he said he would run a continuous poll to keep track of their desires he caused people to start wondering, which is always a good thing.

What the wonderers wanted to know is how anyone who goes to Congress, the state legislature or city council can vote the way his constituents want him to vote when approximately half of them will feel one way and the other half will feel another way.

Here would be their poor, confused vote-caster tuning in on all the conflicting messages from back home and trying to make sense of the babel. It would be just as sensible for the sap to pluck daisy petals to decide how to vote.

This is not to say a legislator shouldn't try to keep in touch with his constituents so he will know what they are talking about and where the skeletons are hidden. It is only to say that if too many Peter Frelinghuysen Juniors happened to get clotted up in the legislative halls at the same time all hope of preserving the republic would have to be abandoned.

There is no reason for any of us to be starry-eyd about government. It's a grim and gritty business, featuring the fast shuffle, the inside track, the old twisteroo and the squeaking wheel that gets the grease. The only thing that keeps it from becoming hopelessly cynical and corrupt is the buoyant integrity of a few men and women who are incapable of sinking to the lowest level of public affairs.

They have made the great discovery of freedom—that men can govern themselves without terror and enslavement if they will delegate carefully-defined authority to their peers, then let the peers do their own deciding, subject to second-guessing.

The underlying assumption is that the peers, being the equals of the people who empowered them to do the legislating, will reflect pretty clearly the best judgment of the ordinary run of the home folks. They will vote sometimes this way, sometimes that way.

If it turns out that they voted too often one way when a majority of their constitutents thought they should have voted another way, they will be thrown out of their jobs at the next election.

But never—repeat, never—will they abandon their right to use their own best judgment unless they want to be despised by those whose good opinion is worth seeking.

It is an endlessly exciting experience to be part of a republic, because the sky is the limit. Government can be as good as its people are willing to let it be. At any given moment, they could retire all the sad sacks and time servers who make a mockery of popular representation.

They could insist that every legislative post be manned by the possessor of a good mind and flawless integrity. They could write a golden chapter in the record of popular rule and prove once and for all that it is independent of despotism, both of the mob and the man on horseback.

They might even go so far in their striving for perfection as to tell their legislators what young Frelinghuysen probably will discover—that a lawmaker is expected to use his brain for all it's worth and if it isn't worth much his disappointed constituents will have to send a new boy to the legislative mill—someone who is smarter than they ever can be in the mass.

In a republic, the sky's the limit. So is the bottom of the ocean.

The Once Over

Rebel Review

Billy Rose's new production, "The Immoralist," had a New York opening from which the dramatic critics agreed to keep away until it had a week's run on Broadway, but always a rebel, we were not a party to the complete agreement.

We contsented to stay away, but clung to our constitutional right to review it, present or not. We found the play gripping, its absorbing moments exceeded by only two other new shows which we did not see either. But on with the review:

Here is a drama which has everything. (Everything but reviewers.) The opening act suffered, we thought, from an indefiniteness which is apt to mark an act which the critic takes only on hearsay. It picks up speed and clarity toward the first-act curtain, this being due largely to the suspense created when a reviewer is at home and the play is going on in a theater 20 blocks away.

The second act opens with the sheriff, who is "the law west of the Pecos," meeting the governess who has come to Siam to teach the king's children, and there is a charming scene when everybody sails from Bali Ha'i to meet the U. S. Marines arriving across a crowded room. (In a review like this it is easy to get mixed up with other plays, some of which we have seen.—Ed.)

The story moves swiftly into the big trial scene arising out of the mutiny. The dramatic climax comes with the arrival of the herd of elephants from the naval base at Fort Hippodrome. Owing to the fact we had to depend on a telescope, some field glasses and a couple of spies in order to review this play, the details of the ending escaped us, but we found the drama adequate, with many possibilities of a big hit.

(Note: Next week we are going to a Broadway show to which the producer will allow critics for a week but ask the public to keep away. Anything for novelty.)

Supreme Court heard arguments this week in the FCC ban on renewing licenses to radio and TV stations using giveway programs involving phone calls, etc.

The justices displayed keen interest, asking many questions, with Justice Frankfurter expressing a belief people turned to giveaways "from a vacuity of mind" instead of hope of rewards.

We wonder if even a Supreme Court justice, at home, far from public view, gets a kick out of quiz programs like most folks.

There must be moments when a justice, after a tough week in an overheated room battling legal problems, tunes in and feels envious when he sees some fellow win a free trip to Honolulu or Nassau. . .

We think Justices Black and Douglas, home watching a TV program, dissent when some person gets his house painted inside and out, a trip to the Rockies and maybe a year's supply of headache pills.

We think Justice Frankfurter would react like most folks if his phone rang Sunday night and a voice said, "Mr. Frankfurter, you have been chosen to try for the $20,000 prize by identifying 'The Mystery Voice.'"

We have an idea any member of the High Court feels a little jealous of a fellow who has just won a motorcycle, a speedboat, two weeks at Sun Valley, a season pass to Coney Island or 24 lessons in dancing.

An earthquake has been reported in Missouri, but was probably just Harry Truman reacting from the news that Joe McCarthy had won his investigation appropriation by a Senate vote of 85 to 1.

Tony Manero, ex-golf champ, has joined his family in the restaurant business and we must consult him on our steak-eating forms. . . We are not sure whether our trouble is that we look up or are pressing when we get a sirloin.

Morale Not Hurt, McLeod Says

Security Chief Defends Foreign Service Cleanup

WASHINGTON (AP)—R. W. Scott McLeod, security administrator of the Department of State, said today it is "not valid" to contend that new security procedures have lowered morale of the U. S. foreign service.

"We are gradually cleaning up the 'mess' in the State Department," McLeod said in a copyrighted interview with the Magazine U. S. News and World Report. But he insisted it was being done without harm to the effectiveness of the department.

McLeod also said Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) had "absolutely nothing to do with his appointment to his present job, and he characterized as "ridiculous" reports that a man may be fired because his superiors do not like his choice of reading matter.

McLeod said that last year, the department dropped from the payroll about 300 persons about whom there were unresolved security questions. The department employs about 11,000 persons. He said the number might include some who resigned before their security clearances had been completed.

President Eisenhower announced a month ago that 2,200 persons had been dropped in the whole government under the security program.

McLeod said he is aware he has been the subject of much criticism, due in part, he said, to "the general endorsement my friend Joe McCarthy gave me right after my appointment." He said he never worked for McCarthy although the senator "used to call me up and ask my advice, but I know of no single instance where he ever took it."

Kingpin in Car Theft Racket Sought by FBI

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 32-year-old ex-convict reputed to have become a kingpin in the car theft racket today was listed by the FBI among its 10 most wanted fugitives.

He is Nelson Robert Duncan, a native of Chattanooga, Tenn., who first ran afoul of the law at the age of 16 when he was given a one to five year sentence for stealing a car in Atlanta, Ga.

The FBI said Duncan, many times in and out of prison on robbery and burglary charges, had more recently recruited a car theft gang built around his brothers and varied assortment of underworld rogues who had expanded their operations from the southeastern states into the populous Midwest.

Two of Duncan's brothers are now in federal penitentiaries.

Duncan, the reputed leader, always preferred to stay in the background, the bureau said, but a close watch on him produced evidence that he drove a stolen car from Atlanta to Cleveland, Ohio, last November, and he was indicted by a federal grand jury in Atlanta on this charge.

Court Verdict Returned In Favor of Bucyrian

BUCYRUS — A Crawford County Common Pleas Court jury has returned a verdict for W. Harold Wilson, Bucyrus automobile dealer and defendant in a $772 action for money brought against him by the Ohio Farmers Insurance Co. of LeRoy, O., Clerk of Courts G. William Dustman reported here today.

The insurance company sought $772 for damages to a car, belonging to John Chandler of near Bucyrus, in a fire at the Wilson garage last Oct. 3. The firm charged negligence and asked reimbursement for a settlement made with Chandler.

Government research indicates that it requires about 5½ hours to handle unprepared food for a day in a family of four, but only 1.6 hours if ready-to-serve foods are used.

Citizenship Given Crawford Countian

BUCYRUS — A Galion resident has been granted U. S. citizenship and four other foreign-born Crawford County residents have filed their initial petitions for citizenship, Common Pleas Court officials announced here today.

Citizenship was granted Amerigo Lanzillotta, 24, of Galion, a native of Italy. He served in the U. S. Army from Jan. 11, 1951, to Dec. 20, 1952, and has been a resident of this country since 1947. He was granted citizenship under a special regulation applying to aliens, who have served in armed forces of the U. S.

Applications for citizenship were accepted by W. E. Riedel, acting officer in charge of immigration service, Toledo, from: Jose Rodreghez, 54, a native of Mexico, who resides with his wife and 10 children, near Plymouth; Mrs. Kenneth B. Peterman, 25, Germany, who lives with her husband and three children near Bucyrus; Mrs. James Grimm, 19, of Bucyrus, and Mrs. Enus Shumate of near Crestline, both natives of Japan. Mrs. Grimm's husband is serving with the air force in Tokyo and she expects to join him after she becomes a citizen. Mrs. Shumate's husband is serving with the army in the Pacific area.

YMCA Swimming Course Scheduled

The YMCA announced today a course of instruction in swimming for men will begin next week. Class will be held each Monday at 6 p.m. and will be open to any adult male member of the YMCA.

The class will be conducted by Vern Miller, YMCA physical director, and will be geared primarily to beginners. Advanced aquatic classes will be available to men in the YMCA aquatic program in April. Persons interested in further details may call at the YMCA desk and give their name and address if planning to take instructions. The swimming class will run through the end of April and will include theory and practical orientation.

The first class is slated to begin next Monday at 5:30 p.m. with a half-hour orientation period. All other classes will be scheduled at the regular 6 p.m. time.

Garden Club Unit Opens New Season

Mrs. William Hutchman, president, was hostess for the first meeting of the 1954 season for members of the House and Garden Unit of the Marion Garden Club, Friday, in her home, 307 Forest Lawn Blvd.

For the dessert luncheon which preceded the business session and program, the table, covered with a white cloth, was centered with a bank of African violets. Presiding were Mrs. H. G. Duhamel and Mrs. Paul Williams.

Mrs. O. E. Hamilton, general chairman and Mrs. Clare Williams, discussed the schedule for the annual flower show to be held May 8 and 9 in the chapel room of the YMCA. The theme this year will be "Mother Nature Smiles." For roll call the topic was "Problems of Your Garden." An invitation was received from the Green Thumb Unit to attend a luncheon and program at Hotel Harding on Feb. 26. Speaker will be Mrs. Silas Anderson of Bowling Green whose topic will be "Table Decor With Wire." Slides were shown of the winning arrangements in last year's flower show and also of gardens of some of the members. In a contest identifying various seeds the award was won by Mrs. D. E. Montgomery.

Mrs. Hutchman announced the following committees for the year, the first named to serve as chairman: Mrs. B. T. Wiant, Mrs. B. R. Prichard, Mrs. Lelah Fox, Mrs. Paul Williams, Garden Center; Mrs. Ray Romine, Mrs. Homer R. Waddell, Mrs. H. G Duhamel, Mrs. J. F. Neidhart, Mrs. B. R. Prichard, program; Mrs. J. E. Oliphant, Mrs. B. R Prichard, Mrs. B Peterson, Miss Mabel Wheatley, civic; Mrs. C L. Kline, Mrs. James E. Frew, Mrs. O. C. Schlientz, Mrs. E. W. Warwick, field trips; Mrs. D. E. Montgomery, Mrs. Lelah Fox, press; Mrs. U. A. Nystrom, Mrs. Paul Williams, Mrs. James H. Ralston, social; Mrs. Homer R. Waddell, Garden Greetings highlights; Mrs. J. F. Neidhart, Garden Path highlights; Mrs. Dwight Mahaffey, Mrs. Forest Flockencier, Mrs. Edwin P. King, Mrs. K. B. Morgan, exhibits; Mrs. Harold Henry, Mrs. Ada Altmaier, Mrs. F. C. Cory, Mrs. C. E. Danner, exchange; Mrs. Cloyce Taylor, Mrs. Joseph Lyons, Miss Elizabeth Ammann, finance; Mrs. Ben T Wiant, Mrs. Stuart Mills, Mrs. O. C. Alspach, membership; Mrs. E. J. Kinter, bookshelf.

Officers serving with Mrs. Hutchman are Mrs. J. G. Duhamel, vice president, Mrs. C. E Lockwood, recording secretary; Mrs. H J. Merchant, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Rex Robinson, treasurer.

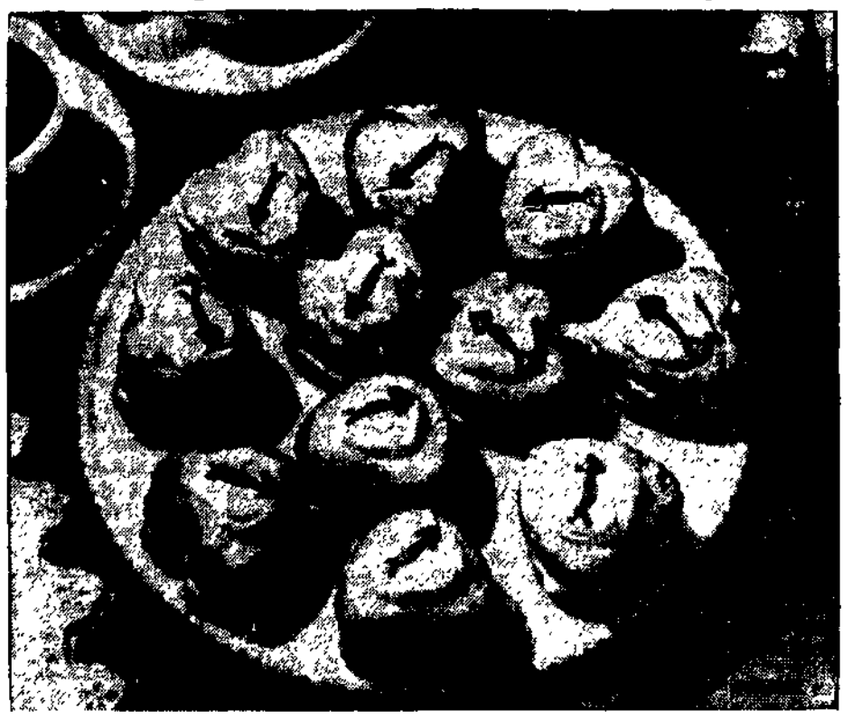
Mansfield Sets Record In Boarding of Air Mail

Lake Central Airlines boarded nearly 58 tons of mail in Mansfield during the period from April 15 to Dec. 31, 1953, more than twice the amount boarded by any other city on Lake Central's route, it was announced today by airline officials.

Mansfield's nearest competitor was Indianapolis, the center of Lake Central's operations, which boarded 33 tons of mail during 1953.

The year 1953 was the Year of the Snake in China.

Serve 'Neapolitans' at Valentine's Day Party



Serve these little 'Neapolitans' at your St. Valentine's Day party They are filled with a creamy combination of cherries and coconut and are topped with whipped cream. Decorate them with little cupid darts made with bits of maraschino cherries.

These cookies can be made early in the day and placed in the refrigerator until time to serve them.

Use:

¾ cup shortening
3 tablespoons boiling water
1 tablespoon milk
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 egg yolks, unbeaten
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1-3 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt

Put shortening in medium-sized mixing bowl. Add boiling water, milk and lemon juice and break up shortening with fork. Tilt bowl and, with rapid cross-the-bowl strokes, whip with fork until all liquid is absorbed and mixture holds soft peaks when fork is lifted . . . Add egg yolks and beat until well blended.

Sift flour, sugar, and salt onto the creamy-gold batter. Stir quickly with round-the-bowl strokes into a dough that clings together and cleans the bowl . . . Pick up and work into a smooth dough; shape into a flat round. Makes enough pastry for 16 heart-shaped pastries.

Divide dough in half, shape into 2 rounds. Roll each separately between two 12" squares of waxed paper into a circle size of paper and ⅛" thick. Pull off top paper and cut out small heart shapes with heart-shaped cutter. Remove from paper and place on ungreased baking sheet. Prick with fork. Bake in hot oven (440-F.), 10-15 min., or until pastry is honey-gold in color. Remove from sheet to wire rack to cool. Repeat with other half of dough.

There should be about 48 hearts in all. Spread a layer of Cherry-Coconut Filling on 32 hearts, then put together in pairs. Top with remaining 16 hearts. Spread a little of the plain cream filing in center of each top and decorate with an arrow made with strips of cherry. Makes 16 pastries.

Cherry-Coconut Filling

Let a 3-oz. pkg. cream cheese soften in mixing bowl about 10 min., then cream with spoon . . . Add 2 tablespoons sugar, dash of salt, ⅛ teaspoon almond extract; mix. Whip ½ cup heavy cream until stiff; fold into cheese mixture . . . Take out a little of the mixture for garnish, then add 2 tablespoons each finely cut, well-drained maraschino cherries and finely cut shredded coconut, blend. Makes filling for 16 pastries.

The Social Notebook

Mrs. James Lee was a guest when the Jolly Hour Club met Friday evening with Mrs. Thomas Berry on Lincoln Ave. Prizes were won by Mrs. Mary Jenner, Mrs. Florence Close and Mrs. James Lee Jr. Appointments for refreshments were in keeping with St. Valentine's Day. Garden Club Guest Talks On Flowers

Mrs. Richard Zachman was a guest speaker when the Town and Country Unit of the Marion Garden Club opened the 1954 season, Friday at the home of Mrs. John F. Smith on Virginia Ave. Associate hostesses were Mrs. William K. Hamor, Mrs. John K. Bartram, Mrs. Wilson B. Tway and Mrs. Charles H. Isaly.

A dessert luncheon preceded the program. Presiding at the table were Mrs. L. D. Hamilton, president and Mrs. Lewis Ashworth. A meeting of the board was at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Zachman talked on Japanese flowers and their symbolisms and also fashioned an arrangement using dried materials, foliage and driftwood. Mrs. Clare Williams of the Sun and Shade unit, presented the schedule for the annual flower show to be held this year on May 9 and 10 in the YMCA. An invitation was received from the Green Thumb Unit to join the members for a program meeting Feb. 26 at Hotel Harding.

Mrs. Lester Baldinger of Salem was a guest.

The next meeting will be March 5 with Mrs. Ernest Davis of Bellefontaine Ave. at which time the annual auction will be held.

Airline Passenger Increase Reported

Lake Central Airlines, local service carrier serving the five state area of Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Pennsylvania, and Illinois, realized a 72 per cent increase in passenger sales during 1953 over their 1952 boardings, it was announced today by James W. E Humphrey, general sales manager for the airline.

"We are expecting this trend to continue during 1954," Humphrey said. "For example, in January of this year, Lake Central's passenger boardings showed an increase of 132 per cent over the number boarded during the same period last year.

Lake Central Airlines has more than doubled its route mileage since the inception of scheduled operations in 1949. Its routes now total 1445 miles and connect 22 cities in the midwest.
